

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

MADRAS ACT No. XXXVI OF 1955.

[Received the assent of the President on the 8th November 1955, first published in the "Fort St. George Gazette" on the 7th December 1955.]

An Act to repeal certain enactments and to amend certain other enactments.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the enactments specified in the First Schedule which are spent or have otherwise become unnecessary, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by expressed specific repeal, should be expressly and specifically repealed;

AND WHEREAS it is also expedient that certain amendments should be made in the enactments specified in the Second Schedule;

BE it enacted in the Sixth year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Madras Repealing and Amending Act, 1955.

2. Repeal of certain enactments.—The enactments specified in the First Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the fourth column thereof.

3. Amendment of certain enactments.—The enactments specified in the Second Schedule are hereby amended to the extent and in the manner mentioned in the fourth column thereof.

3. Amendment of section 2, Madras Act XXVII of 1949.—In section 2 of the principal Act, after clause (c), the following clauses shall be added, namely :—

“(d) ‘forest offence’ means an offence punishable under this Act;

(e) the expressions ‘Forest-officer’, ‘tree’, ‘timber’, ‘forest-produce’, ‘cattle’, ‘Magistrate’ and ‘imprisonment’ shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in section 2 of the Madras Forest Act, 1882 (Madras Act V of 1882).”.

4. Insertion of new section 6-A in Madras Act XXVII of 1949.—After section 6 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

“6-A. Applicability of Chapter VII of Madras Act V of 1882.—The provisions of Chapter VII of the Madras Forest Act, 1882 (Madras Act V of 1882), shall apply to offences punishable under this Act subject to the following modifications, namely :—

MADRAS ACT No. I OF 1908.¹

(THE MADRAS ESTATES LAND ACT, 1908.]

[25th March 1908 ; 28th June 1908.]

An Act to declare and amend the law relating to the holding of land in estates in the Presidency of Madras.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and declare the Law relating to the holding of land in estates in the Presidency of Madras ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

- Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Madras Estates Land Act, 1908 :
- Commencement. it shall come into force on the first day of July 1908 :
- Local extent. and it shall extend to the whole of the Presidency of Madras except the Presidency Town, the district of Malabar and the portion of the Nilgiri district known as the South East Wynaad.
- Repeal. 2. Madras Acts VIII of 1865 and II of 1871 and section 7 of Madras Act III of 1890 are hereby repealed.
- Definitions. 3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context—
- “ Agriculture.” (1) “ Agriculture ” with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions shall include horticulture.
- “ Collector.” ² [(1-A) “ Collector ” means a Revenue Divisional Officer and includes any person appointed by the ³ (State Government) whether by name or in virtue of his office, to exercise any of the functions of a Collector under this Act.]

This Act is not in force in the taluks of Nugur, Albaka and Cherla, vide section 2 (2) of the Nugur, Albaka and Cherla Laws and Cesses Regulation, 1909 (Central Act I of 1909).

This Act will cease to be in force in certain Scheduled Areas in the East Godavari, West Godavari and Visagapatam districts—see the Madras Partially Excluded Areas (Estates Land Repealing) Regulation, 1943 (Madras Regulation I of 1943).

² This clause was inserted by section 4 (1) of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.)

"Estate."

(2) "Estate" means—

(a) any permanently-settled estate or temporarily-settled zamindari;

(b) any portion of such permanently-settled estate or temporarily-settled zamindari which is separately registered in the office of the Collector;

(c) any unsettled palaiyam or jagir;

¹ [(d) any inam village of which the grant has been made, confirmed or recognized by the ² [] Government, notwithstanding that subsequent to the grant, the village has been partitioned among the grantees or the successors in title of the grantee or grantees.]³ [Explanation (1).—Where a grant as an inam is expressed to be of a named village, the area which forms the subject-matter of the grant shall be deemed to be an estate notwithstanding that it did not include certain lands in the village of that name which have already been granted on service or other tenure or been reserved for communal purposes.]Explanation ³ [(2).—Where an inam village is resumed by the Government, it shall cease to be an estate; but, if any village so resumed is subsequently re-granted by the Government as an inam, it shall from the date of such re-grant, be regarded as an estate.Explanation ³ [(3).—Where a portion of an inam village is resumed by the Government, such portion shall cease to be part of the estate, but the rest of the village shall be deemed to be an inam village for the purposes of this sub-clause. If the portion so resumed or any part thereof is subsequently re-granted by the Government as an inam, such portion or part shall from the date of such re-grant, be regarded as forming part of the inam village for the purposes of this sub-clause];

(e) any portion consisting of one or more villages of any of the estates specified above in clauses (a), (b) and (c) which is held on a permanent under-tenure.

(3) "Holding" means a parcel or parcels of land held "Holding." under a single ⁴ [patta] or engagement in a single village;¹ This sub-clause was substituted for the original sub-clause (d) by section 2 (i) of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936 (Madras Act XVIII of 1936).² The word "British" was omitted by the Adaptation (Amendment) Order of 1950.³ Old Explanations (1) and (2) were renumbered as Explanations (2) and (3) respectively and Explanation (1) was inserted by section 2 (1) of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1945 (Madras Act II of 1945), re-enacted permanently by section 2 of, and the First Schedule to, the Madras Re-enacting (No. II) Act, 1948 (Madras Act VIII of 1948). This amendment shall be deemed to have had effect as from the date on which the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936 (Madras Act XVIII of 1936), came into force.⁴ This word was substituted for the word "pattah" by section 2 of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.)

Provided that if the landholder and ryot so agree in writing any portion of a holding as above defined shall be treated as a separate holding.

ment.”

(4) “Improvement” means with reference to a ryot’s holding any work which materially adds to the value of the holding, which is suitable to the holding and consistent with the character thereof, and which if not executed on the holding, is either executed directly for its benefit or after execution is made directly beneficial to it, and, subject to the foregoing provisions, includes—

(a) the construction of tanks, wells, water channels, and other works for the storage, supply, or distribution of water for agricultural purposes ;

(b) the construction of works for the drainage of land, or for the protection of land from floods, or from erosion or from other damage by water ;

(c) the reclaiming, clearing, enclosing, levelling, or terracing of land and the preparation of land for irrigation ;

(d) the erection of buildings on the holding or in its immediate vicinity, elsewhere than on the village-site, required for the convenient or profitable use or occupation of the holding and the erection of dwelling houses for the ryot and his family and servants ;

(e) the renewal or reconstruction of any of the foregoing works, or alterations therein or additions thereto ; and

(f) the planting of fruit trees and fruit gardens ;
but does not include, unless made with the written consent of the landholder, any work which prejudicially affects any other land of the landholder.

(5) “Landholder” means a person owning an estate or part thereof and includes every person entitled to collect the rents of the whole or any portion of the estate by virtue of any transfer from the owner or his predecessor-in-title or of any order of a competent Court or of any provision of law.

Where there is a dispute between two or more persons as to which of them is the landholder for all or any of the purposes of this Act or between two or more joint landholders as to which of them is entitled to proceed and be dealt with as such landholder, the person who shall be deemed to be the landholder for such purposes shall be the person whom the Collector subject to any decree or order of a competent Civil Court may recognize or nominate as such landholder in accordance with rules to be framed by the ¹ [State Government] in this behalf.

¹ The words “Provincial Government” were substituted for the words “Local Government” by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word “State”

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.)

(6) ¹ * * * *  ¹ [ * * * *]

(8) "Pay", "payable" and "payment" used with "Pay," etc. reference to rent include "deliver", "deliverable" and "delivery."

(9) "Prescribed" means prescribed from time to time "Pre-scribed." by the ² [State Government] by notification in the official Gazette.

³ [(10) "Private land"—

(a) in the case of an estate within the meaning of "Private sub-clauses (a), (b), (c) or (e) of clause (2), means the domain land" or home-farm land of the landholder by whatever designation known, such as, kambattam, khas, sir, or pannai, and includes all land which is proved to have been cultivated as private land by the landholder himself, by his own servants or by hired labour, with his own or hired stock, for a continuous period of twelve years immediately before the commencement of this Act; and

(b) in the case of an estate within the meaning of sub-clause (d) of clause (2), means—

(i) the domain or home-farm land of the landholder, by whatever designation known, such as, kambattam, khas, sir or pannai; or

(ii) land which is proved to have been cultivated as private land by the landholder himself, by his own servants or by hired labour, with his own or hired stock, for a continuous period of twelve years immediately before the first day of July 1908, provided that the landholder has retained the kudivaram ever since and has not converted the land into ryoti land; or

(iii) land which is proved to have been cultivated by the landholder himself, by his own servants or by hired labour, with his own or hired stock, for a continuous period of twelve years immediately before the first day of November 1933, provided that the landholder has retained the kudivaram ever since and has not converted the land into ryoti land; or

(iv) land the entire kudivaram in which was acquired by the landholder before the first day of November 1933 for valuable consideration from a person owning the kudivaram but not the melvaram, provided that the landholder has retained the kudivaram ever since and has not converted

¹ Clauses (6) and (7) were omitted by section 4 (3) of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

³ This clause was substituted for the original clause (10) by section 2 (ii) of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936 (Madras Act XVIII of 1936).

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.)

the land into ryoti land, and provided further that, where the kudivaram was acquired at a sale for arrears of rent, the land shall not be deemed to be private land unless it is proved to have been cultivated by the landholder himself, by his own servants or by hired labour, with his own or hired stock, for a continuous period of twelve years since the acquisition of the land and before the commencement of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936.]

Madras
Act
of 1936

¹ [(11) “Rent” means whatever is lawfully payable in money or in kind or in both to a landholder by a ryot for the use or occupation of land for the purpose of agriculture and includes whatever is lawfully payable on account of water supplied by the landholder or taken without his permission for cultivation of land where the charge for water has not been consolidated with the charge for the use or occupation of the land.]

For the purposes of sections 5, 27, 28, 59 to 72, 77 to 131, 135, 136, 145 to 148, 165, 210 and 211 and the Schedule, rent includes also—

(a) any local tax, cess, fee or sum lawfully payable to a landholder by a ryot as such in addition to the rent due according to law or usage having the force of law and also money recoverable under any enactment for the time being in force as if it was rent; and

(d) sums lawfully payable to a landholder by a ryot as such on account of pasturage fees and fishery rents.]

“Revenue field.”

(12) “Revenue field” means a survey field, or any field or parcel of land, on which a definite rent is payable, or which in case of dispute may be declared by a Collector to be a revenue field.

(13) ² [* * * * *]

(14) “Revenue year” means the year ending on the 30th June.

(15) “Ryot” means a person who holds for the purpose of agriculture ryoti land in an estate on condition of paying to the landholder the rent which is legally due upon it.

² [Explanation.—A person who has occupied ryoti land for a continuous period of twelve years shall be deemed to be a ryot for all the purposes of this Act.]

³ Explanation to clause 15 was added by section 4 (6), ibid.

(Chapter I.—Preliminary. Chapter II.—General Rights.)

(16) "Ryoti land" means cultivable land in an estate "Ryoti land." other than private land but does not include—

1 [(a) beds and bunds of tanks and of supply, drainage surplus or irrigation channels ;]

(b) threshing-floor, cattle-stands, village-sites, and other lands situated in any estate which are set apart for the common use of the villagers ;

(c) lands granted on service tenure either free of rent or on favourable rates of rent if granted before the passing of this Act or free of rent if granted after that date, so long as the service tenure subsists.

(17) "Signed" includes stamped with the name of "Signed." the person purporting to sign.

(18) "Tahsildar" includes a Deputy Tahsildar.

"Tahsildar."

(19) "Village" means any local area situated in or constituting an estate which is designated as a village in the revenue accounts and for which the revenue accounts are separately maintained by one or more karnams or which is now recognized by the ² [State Government] or may hereafter be declared by the ² [State Government] for the purposes of this Act to be a village, and includes any hamlet or hamlets which may be attached thereto.

"Village."

CHAPTER II.

GENERAL RIGHTS.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a landholder is entitled to collect rent in respect of all ryoti land in the occupation of a ryot.

Landholder's right to collect rent.

5. (1) The rent of ryoti land together with any interest which may be due in respect thereof shall be a first charge upon the holding and upon the produce of the holding or any part thereof, provided that, if gathered, the produce is in the custody or possession of the ryot or deposited on the holding or on a threshing-floor or place for treading out grain, or the like, whether in the fields or within the homestead.

Rent to be a first charge upon the holding and produce thereof.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any right of the ³ [Government].

³ The word "Crown" was substituted for the word "Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "Government" was substituted for "Crown" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

(Chapter II.—General Rights.)

land.

¹ [6. ² (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every ryot now in possession or who shall hereafter be admitted by a landholder to possession of ryoti land situated in the estate of such landholder shall have a permanent right of occupancy in his holding.

Explanation (1).—For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression 'every ryot now in possession' shall include every person who, having held land as a ryot, continues in possession of such land at the commencement of this Act.

³ [Explanation (2).—In relation to any inam village which was not an estate before the commencement of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936, but became an estate by virtue of that Act, or in relation to any land in an inam village which ceased to be part of an estate before the commencement of that Act, the expressions 'now' and 'commencement of this Act' in this sub-section and Explanation (1) shall be construed as meaning the thirtieth day of June 1934, and the expression 'hereafter' in this sub-section shall be construed as meaning the period after the thirtieth day of June 1934.]

Explanation ³ [(3)].—Every landholder who receives or recovers any payment under section 163 from any person unauthorizedly occupying ryoti land shall be deemed to have thereby admitted such person into possession unless within two years from the date of receipt or recovery of payment or the first of such payments, if more than one, he shall file a suit in a Civil Court for ejectment against such person.

(2) Admission to waste land under a contract for the pasturage of cattle and admission to land reserved bona fide by a landholder for raising a garden or tope or for forest under a contract for the temporary cultivation thereof with agricultural crops shall not by itself confer upon the person so admitted a permanent right of occupancy; nor shall such land, by reason only of such letting or temporary cultivation, become ryoti land.

(3) A landholder who has acquired lands under section 186 may, for a period not exceeding three years in the aggregate, with the previous permission in writing of the Collector, temporarily let such lands for agricultural purposes but such letting shall not confer on the tenant any permanent right of occupancy.

¹ This section was substituted for the original section 6 by section 5 of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

² See also the Madras Estates Land (Temporary Amendment) Act, 1944 (Madras Act I of 1944), re-enacted permanently with specified modifications by section 3 of, and the Second Schedule to the Madras Re-enacting (No. II) Act, 1948 (Madras Act VIII of 1948).

³ New Explanation (2) was inserted and original Explanation (2) was renumbered as Explanation (3) by section (3) of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936 (Madras Act XVIII of 1936).

(Chapter II.—General Rights.)

(4) When a landholder has reclaimed waste land by his own servants or hired labour, he may, by contract in writing, prevent any person from acquiring a permanent right of occupancy in respect of the said land during a period of thirty years from the date of the first cultivation after reclamation.

(5) A person holding land as an ijaradar or farmer of the rent shall not, while so holding, acquire, otherwise than by inheritance or devise, a right of occupancy in any land comprised in the ijarah or farm.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the relations between the landholder and the person let into possession under sub-sections (2), (3) or (4) shall during the period and for the purpose referred to therein be regulated by the contract between the parties.]

¹ [6-A. A person having a right of occupancy in land does not lose it by subsequently becoming interested in the land as landholder or by subsequently holding the land as an ijaradar or farmer of rent.]

Ryot becoming landholder, ijaradar or farmer of rent.

7. Nothing in this Act shall affect any right of a landholder to make a reservation of mining rights on admitting any person to possession of ryoti land.

Reservation of mining rights.

² [8.] (1) Whenever before or after the commencement of this Act the occupancy right in any ryoti land vests in the landholder, he shall have no right to hold the land as a ryot but shall hold it as a landholder, but nothing in this sub-section shall prejudicially affect the rights of any third person.

Merger of occupancy right.

(2) Whenever before or after the commencement of this Act the occupancy right in any ryoti land vests in any co-landholder, he shall be entitled to hold the land subject to the payment to his co-landholders of the shares of the rent which may from time to time be payable to them and if such co-landholder lets the land to a third person, such third person shall be deemed to be a ryot in respect of the land.

(3) The merger, if any, of the occupancy right under sub-sections (1) and (2) shall not ⁴ [* * * * *] have the effect of converting ryoti land into private land.

(4) Where after the passing of this Act, the interest of the ryot in the holding passes to the landholder by inheritance, the landholder shall notwithstanding anything contained in this Act have the right, for a period of twelve years from the date of succession, of admitting any person to the possession of such land on such terms as may be agreed upon between them.]

¹ [(5) If before the first day of November 1933, the landholder has obtained in respect of any land in an estate within the meaning of sub-clause (d) of clause (2) of section 3 a final decree or order of a competent Civil Court establishing that the tenant has no occupancy right in such land, and no tenant has acquired any occupancy right in such land before the commencement of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936, the landholder shall, if the land is not private land within the meaning of this Act, have the right, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, for a period of twelve years from the commencement of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936, of admitting any person to the possession of such land on such terms as may be agreed upon between them :

Madras
Act
1936.

Right of landholder to eject a ryot.

9. No landholder shall as such be entitled to eject a ryot from his holding or any part thereof otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Occupancy
right heritable and transferable.

10. (1) All rights of occupancy shall be heritable, and shall be transferable by sale, gift or otherwise.

(2) If a ryot dies intestate ² [* * * * *] without leaving any heirs except the ³ [Government], his right of occupancy shall be extinguished but the land in respect of which he had such right of occupancy shall not cease to be ryoti land.

Use of land
by the ryot.

11. A ryot may use the land in his holding in any manner which does not materially impair the value of the land or render it unfit for agricultural purposes.

Right of ryot to trees in holding.

Registration of land holder's improvement.

16. (1) A landholder may apply to ¹ [the Collector] to register any improvement which he has lawfully made or which has been lawfully made at his expense or which he has assisted a ryot in making.

(2) The application shall be in such form, shall contain such information, and shall be verified in such manner, by local enquiry or otherwise, as the ² [State Government] may by rule direct.

(3) The ¹ [Collector] may reject it if it has not been made within twelve months from the date of the completion of the work.

Application to record evidence as to improvement.

17. (1) If any landholder or ryot of a holding desires that evidence relating to any improvement made after the passing of this Act in respect of a holding shall be recorded, he may apply to the Collector, who shall thereupon, at a time and place of which notice shall be given to both parties, record the evidence, unless for reasons to be recorded he considers that there are no grounds for the application.

(2) When any matter has been recorded under this section, the record shall be admissible in evidence in every subsequent proceeding between the landholder and ryot or any persons claiming under them.

Landholder's right to enter on and measure land.

⁴ This section was inserted by section 5 of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936 (Madras Act XVIII of 1936).

(Chapter III.—General provisions relating to the rates of rent payable by ryots.)

Rent payable on admission to possession of ryoti land after commencement of Act.

25. ¹[A ryot] admitted by the landholder after the commencement of this Act to possession of ryoti land ²[* * *] ¹[shall not, unless otherwise provided in this Act, be bound to pay rent at a rate exceeding] the rate prevailing for similar lands with similar advantages in the neighbourhood, or, in case such rate cannot be ascertained ¹[exceeding such rate], as the Collector may on application decide to be fair and equitable.

Saving as to receipt of premium.

Nothing in this section precludes the landholder from receiving any premium when the ryot is admitted into possession; but a ryot so admitted shall under no circumstances become liable to make any payment to the landholder after his admission by way of premium or other consideration for such admission; nor shall any holding of the ryot be subjected to any charge in respect of any such premium or consideration or part thereof.

Enhancement of rent originally fixed at a lower rate in consideration of bringing waste land into cultivation or of making improvement upon the holding.

26. (1) Where for the purpose of clearing and bringing waste land in the estate into cultivation or for the purpose of making any permanent improvement or for planting trees on the holding or where under a contract made prior to the commencement of this Act for any premium, loan or other valuable consideration, a ryot has accepted a ³[patta] from or has entered into an engagement with his landholder at a rate of rent lower than the lawful rate previously payable upon the land or than the rate lawfully payable upon land of similar description and with similar advantages in the neighbourhood, such rent shall not be liable to enhancement during the period for which such lower rate is payable by contract or custom, so long as the ryot shall substantially fulfil the terms upon which and the purposes for which such lower rate was allowed.

(2) After the expiry of the period for which such lower rate of rent is payable or if the terms upon which and the purposes for which such lower rate was allowed have not been substantially fulfilled, the landholder shall be entitled to the full rate.

(3) Except as provided by sub-section (1) no rate of rent at which land may have been granted by a landholder shall be binding upon the person entitled to the rent after

27. If a question arises as to the amount of rent payable by a ryot or the conditions under which he holds in any revenue year, he shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, to hold at the same rate and under the same conditions as in the last preceding revenue year. Presumption as to amount of rent and conditions of holding.

28. In all proceedings under this Act the rent or rate of rent for the time being lawfully payable by a ryot shall be presumed to be fair and equitable until the contrary is proved : Presumption as to fair rate of rent.

¹ [Provided that in the case of an estate within the meaning of sub-clause (d) of clause (2) of section 3, the rent or rate of rent lawfully payable by a ryot or tenant on the first day of November 1933 shall be presumed to be fair and equitable at the commencement of the Madras Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936, until the contrary is proved.]

29. Where for any land in his holding ² [a ryot] pays rent according to the "Waram" (that is, the established rate of the village for dividing the crop between the landholder and the ryot) with or without an addition in money, or otherwise in kind or on the estimated value of a portion of the crop, or at rates varying with the crop or partly in one of these ways and partly in another or others, such rent shall not be liable to enhancement. Waram rates not liable to enhancement.

30. Where for any land in his holding a ryot pays a money rent the landholder may ³ [apply to the Collector] to enhance the rent on one or more of the following grounds and no others— Enhancement of rent by application.

(i) that during the currency of the existing rent there has been a rise in the average local prices of staple food-crops in the taluk or zamindari division :

(a) Provided that if the rent be permanently payable at a fixed rate or rates it shall not be liable to be enhanced under this clause on the ground of a rise in prices :

(b) Provided also that no enhancement under this clause shall raise the rent by more than two annas in the rupee of the rent previously payable for the land ;

(ii) that during the currency of the existing rent the productive powers of the land held by the ryot have been clause (ii)—

(a) the Collector shall not grant an enhancement unless the improvement has been registered in accordance with this Act or has been executed within fifteen years preceding the commencement of this Act ;

(b) in determining the amount of enhancement the Collector shall have regard to—

(i) the increase in the productive powers of the land caused or likely to be caused by the improvement ;

¹ [(ii) the cost of making the improvement and the proportion in which such cost was borne by the landholder and by the ryot ;]

² [(iii) the probable annual cost of maintenance of the improvement—

(a) to the landholder ; and

(b) to the ryot ;]

² [(iv)] the cost of the preparation and cultivation required for utilizing the improvement ; and

² [(v)] the existing rent and the ability of the land to bear a higher rent.

³ [(2) Before executing any improvement, the landholder may, with the previous sanction of the Collector, enter into a contract with the ryot for the payment of an additional rent in consideration of such improvement. On the improvement being effected the landholder shall apply to the Collector for registration of the same, and the Collector after satisfying himself that the sanctioned improvement has been executed, shall register the same. On or after such registration and on the application of the landholder to enforce such contract, the Collector may pass an order granting such enhancement, not exceeding the additional rent mentioned in the contract, as is found by him to be reasonable with due regard to the considerations specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1).]

Rules as to enhancement of rent on the ground of fluvial action.

34. Where an enhancement is claimed under section 30, clause (iv)—

(a) the Collector shall not take into account any increase which is merely temporary or casual ;

(b) the Collector may enhance the rent to such an amount as he may deem fair and equitable, but not so as to give the landholder more than one-half of the value of the net increase in the produce of the land.

Enhancement of rent to be fair and equitable.

35. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 31 to 34, the Collector shall not in any case ⁵[order] any enhancement which is under the circumstances of the case unfair or inequitable, or which would operate so as to raise the rent beyond the value of the established waram of the village in which the holding is situated, commuted in accordance with the provisions of section 40.

Power to order enhancement to be gradual.

36. If the Collector ⁶[ordering] enhancement under clauses (i), (ii) and (iv) of section 30 considers that the immediate enforcement of ⁶[the order] to its full extent will be attended with hardship to the ryot, he may direct that the enhancement shall be gradual ; that is to say, that the rent shall increase yearly by degrees for any number of years, not exceeding five, until the limit of the enhancement ⁶[ordered] has been reached.

Reduction of Rent.

38. (1) Where for any land in his holding ² [a ryot] pays a money rent, he may ³ [apply to] the Collector for the reduction of his rent on one or more of the following grounds and on no others— Reduction of rent by application.

(a) that the soil of the holding has, without the fault of the ryot, become permanently deteriorated by a deposit of sand or by other specific cause, sudden or gradual ; or

(b) that, in the case of irrigated land, there has been a permanent failure of supply from the irrigation work on which it is dependent ; or

(c) that during the currency of the existing rent there has been a fall not due to a temporary cause in the average local prices of staple food-crops in the taluk or zamindari division.

(2) ³ [On such an application being made], the Collector may direct such reduction of the rent as he thinks fair and equitable and, in settling the amount of reduction under clause (c) of sub-section (1), shall have regard to the considerations specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 31.

⁴ [39. When in a suit or on an application under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 38, a decree or order has been passed reducing the rent or dismissing the suit or application on its merits, no fresh application shall be entertained under the same clause if made within twenty years from the date of such decree or order : Limitation of time to bring successive applications for reduction of rent.

Remission of rent by application.

¹ [39-A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where the rent of any land has been enhanced under section 30 or commuted under section 40 or has been settled under Chapter XI, a ryot may present an application before the Collector for the remission of the rent payable by him during any particular revenue year on the ground that the average local prices of staple food-crops in the taluk or zamindari division during the twelve months ending with the 31st March of that revenue year were lower by not less than 18½ per cent than the average prices on which rent in regard to such land was partly or wholly based :

Provided that, where after a commutation under section 40 or a settlement of rents under Chapter XI, the rent of the land has been enhanced or reduced under the provisions of clause (i), (ii) or (iv) of section 30 or of section 38, regard shall be had to the prices on which such enhancement or reduction has been wholly or partly based.

(2) The rent after remission shall bear to the rent lawfully payable for the time being, the same proportion as the average prices during the twelve months ending with the 31st March of the revenue year, in respect of which such remission of rent is claimed, bear to the average prices, on the basis of which the rent has been previously fixed :

Provided that the rent after remission shall not be less than the rent payable by the ryot before the enhancement made under section 30.

(3) No application under sub-section (1) shall be maintainable unless sixty days' notice in writing has previously been sent to the landholder by registered post on or before the 30th day of April of the revenue year in respect of which remission of rent is claimed specifying—

- (a) the names and addresses of the applicants ;
- (b) the extent and description of the holding or holdings in respect of which remission is claimed, if such application does not relate to an entire village ;
- (c) the cause of action for the relief claimed ; and
- (d) the relief claimed.

(4) The application shall be made before the 1st day of September of the revenue year following that in respect of which the remission of rent is claimed and shall not be liable to be dismissed on the mere ground that such rent had been previously or subsequently paid or realized.

¹ Section 39-A was inserted by section 2 of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1936 (Madras Act VI of 1936).

(5) The pendency of an application under sub-section (1) or of an appeal under sub-section (7) shall not by itself debar a landholder from recovering the rent lawfully payable for the time being from the ryot, but the Collector may stay proceedings for the recovery of such portion of such rent on such terms as he may deem fit. In doing so, the Collector may direct the payment of the remaining portion of the rent to the landholder or his authorized agent in the presence of the Collector or any officer authorized by him and within such time as the Collector may fix.

(6) On the making of an application under sub-section (1) the Collector shall after enquiry in accordance with the rules made under this Act, determine the amount of the remission to be granted to the ryot.

(7) The order of the Collector under this section shall be final subject to the result of an appeal to the District Collector to be preferred within thirty days of the date of the Collector's order and shall not be questioned in any civil court.

(8) If, within thirty days from the date of the original order or from the date of the order passed on appeal by the District Collector, as the case may be, granting remission, the landholder fails either to refund to the applicant or applicants or to adjust towards any rent due in respect of the holding or holdings covered by the application from the applicant or applicants, the whole or any portion of the rent remitted, the applicant or applicants concerned may apply to the Collector for the recovery of the amount or balance due together with interest at six per cent per annum from the date of the order granting remission. On such application, the Collector may, after satisfying himself that the amount or balance is still due, proceed to recover the same as an arrear of land revenue.

(9) The District Collector shall, in the month of April of every year, publish in the District Gazette and at each taluk office, lists of average market prices of staple food-crops in each taluk for the twelve complete months preceding such publication and such lists shall, in any enquiry under this section, be conclusive evidence of the prices of such crops in such locality at such time :

Provided that a reasonable deduction may be made for the cost of carting the crops to the market.]

crop, or at rates varying with the crop, whether in cash or in kind, or partly in one of these ways and partly in another, or partly in one or more of these ways and partly in cash, either the ryot or the landholder may apply to the Collector to have the rent on the holding commuted to a definite money-rent.

(2) On such application, the Collector shall pass an order declaring the sum to be paid as money rent in lieu of rent in kind or otherwise. The commutation shall take effect from the beginning of the revenue year next after the date of such order.]

(3) In making the determination the Collector shall have due regard to each of the following considerations :—

(a) the average value of the rent actually accrued due to the landholder '[during the ten years preceding the date of application] other than the years which the ²[State Government] may notify to be or to have been famine years in respect of any local area or, if the value for such period cannot be ascertained, during any shorter period for which evidence may be available excluding famine years ;

(b) the money rent payable by ³[ryots] for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the same village or neighbouring villages ³[or where there are none such, in the village of a neighbouring taluk] ; and

(c) improvements effected by the landholder or, the ryot in respect of the holding, and the rules laid down in section 32.

(Chapter III.—General provisions relating to the rates of rent payable by ryots.)Alteration of rent with area.

42. (1) Every ryot shall—

(a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved to be in excess of the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the excess is due to the addition to the holding of land which having previously belonged to the holding was lost by diluvion or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made ; and Alteration of rent in respect of alteration in area.

(b) be entitled to a reduction of rent in respect of any deficiency proved to exist in the area of his holding as compared with the area for which rent has been previously paid by him unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the holding by alluvion or otherwise and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to such area.

²[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), where by agreement in writing the rent is fixed in proportion to the area or where by agreement in writing the rent is fixed on the basis of an assumed area and the agreement provides for the alteration of the rent when the actual area is found to vary from the assumed area, it shall be lawful for the landholder or the ryot to enforce an increase or decrease of the rent, as the case may be, in consequence of an increase or decrease of area measured in the same unit.]

³[43. * * * * *]

44. ⁴[1] Upon an application under sub-section (2) of section 42 being made, or in proceedings in which it is claimed to enforce an increase or decrease of rent as provided in sub-section (3) of that section, the Collector shall determine the area for which rent has previously been paid and the amount, if any, to be added to or deducted from the rent.]

Rules for the determination of alteration of rent with area.

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid, the Collector shall have regard to each of the following considerations :—

(a) the origin and conditions of the occupancy—for instance, whether the rent was a consolidated rent for the entire holding ;

(b) any reason which may have led the landholder to permit the ryot to hold the additional land whether in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise ;

(c) any reason which may have led the ryot to consent to hold a reduced area without a corresponding reduction in his rent ;

Explanation.—In determining whether the landholder has permitted the ryot to hold the additional land or whether the ryot has consented to hold the reduced area without a corresponding reduction in rent, the Collector may take into consideration the length of time during which the occupancy has lasted without dispute as to rent or area ; and

(d) the length of the measure used or in local use at the time of the origin of the occupancy as compared with that used or in local use at the time of the application.

(3) In determining the amount to be added to the rent, the Collector shall have regard to the rates payable by ryots for lands of a similar description and with similar advantages in the village or neighbouring villages, and shall not in any case fix any rent which in the circumstances of the case is unfair or inequitable.

(4) When the landholder or ryot is unable to indicate any particular land as held in excess, the rent to be added on account of the excess area may be calculated at the average rate of rent paid on all the lands of the holding exclusive of such excess area.

(5) In case of abatement the deduction from the rent shall be proportionate to the diminution in the total yearly produce of the holding or, in default of satisfactory proof thereof, the deduction shall be proportionate to the diminution in the area of the holding.

(6) An addition to or abatement of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

56. When a ryot for one month after tender fails to accept the ¹[patta] tendered to him and to give a ¹[muchilika] in exchange, the landholder may sue before the Collector to enforce acceptance of such ¹[patta].

Suit to enforce acceptance of patta.

²[57. In adjudicating suits under sections 55 and 56 the Collector shall proceed as herein mentioned. If he finds that the defendant is not bound to grant or accept a patta he shall dismiss the suit. If he finds that the defendant is bound to grant or accept a patta he shall decide whether the patta demanded or tendered is a proper one and if he so finds shall pass a decree, directing the defendant to grant the patta in exchange for a muchilika or accept the patta and give amuchilika in exchange. If the Collector finds that the patta demanded or tendered is not a proper one he shall decide what the terms of the patta should be and shall embody such terms in the decree passed by him and the decree shall be of the same force and effect as if a patta and muchilika had been exchanged.]

Procedure in adjudication of suits to enforce grant or acceptance of patta.

58. The karnam of the village in which the holding is situated shall regularly sign and register ¹[pattas] and ¹[muchilikas] in respect of the holding.

Pattas and muchilikas to be signed and registered by the karnam.

CHAPTER V.

PAYMENT AND ARREARS OF RENT.

59. Rent shall be payable in instalments according to agreement or in the absence of agreement according to established usage.

Payment of rent in instalments.

60. An instalment of rent not paid on the day on which it falls due, becomes on the following day an arrear of rent.

Arrear of rent.

61. ³[Subject to the provisions of this Act, an arrear of rent shall bear simple interest] at the rate of one-half per centum per mensem from the date on which the arrear fell due until it is liquidated.

Interest on arrears.

63. (1) The receipt shall specify such of the following particulars as can be specified by the landholder at the time of payment, namely,—

- (a) the names of the payer and payee ;
- (b) the name of the village in which the holding is situated ;
- (c) the amount paid ;
- (d) a description of the holding on account of which the rent has been paid ;
- (e) the year and instalment to which the payment has been credited ;
- (f) whether the payment has been accepted as a payment in full, or only on account ; and
- (g) the date on which the rent is paid :

Provided that the ¹ [State Government] may prescribe from time to time a modified form either generally or for any particular local area or class of cases.

(2) If a receipt does not contain substantially the particulars required by this section it may be presumed to be an acquittance in full of all arrears of rent up to the date on which the receipt was given.

Credit of payments on account of instalments.

64. (1) When a ryot makes a payment on account of rent, he may declare the year and the instalment to which he wishes the payment to be credited, and the payment shall be credited accordingly.

(2) If he does not make any such declaration, the payment may at the option of the landholder be credited on account of any arrear not barred by limitation.

Compensation for withholding receipt.

65. ² [If a landholder or other person receiving rent on his behalf refuses without reasonable cause] to deliver to a ryot a receipt ³ [as required by] sections 62 and 63 for any rent paid by him, or to credit the rent paid to the year and instalment to which the ryot has requested the payment to be credited, the ryot shall be entitled to ⁴ [recover from the landholder on application made to the Collector for that purpose] compensation not exceeding double the amount or value of the rent paid.

(Chapter V.—Payment and Arrears of Rent.)

66. The payment shall, except in cases where a ryot is allowed under this Act to deposit his rent, be made at the landholder's village office, or at such other convenient place within five miles of the village in which the holding is situated as may be appointed in that behalf by the landholder : Place of payment.

Provided that the ryots may pay their rent to the landholder by postal money-orders under rules which the ¹ [State Government] may prescribe :

Provided also that when rent is payable in kind it shall be delivered at the landholder's granary in the village in which the holding is situated or at such other granary within ten miles of the village as may be provided in that behalf by the landholder ² [but the landholder shall bear the cost of transport from the threshing-floor to the granary if the distance exceeds three miles].

67. Where rent is due to a landholder, the receipt for any payment on that account of the person recognized or nominated under ³ [clause (5) of section 3] as landholder for the purpose of receiving rent ⁴ [or of the person authorized to receive the rent] shall be a sufficient discharge for the rent, and the person liable for the rent shall not be entitled to plead in defence to a claim by a person so recognized or nominated that the rent is due to a third person. But nothing in this section shall affect any remedy which any such third person may have against the landholder so recognized or nominated. Effect of receipt of person recognized or nominated as landholder for receiving rent.

Deposit of Rent.

68. (1) In any of the following cases in which rent is due and is payable in money, namely,— Application to deposit rent.

(a) when a ryot tenders money on account of rent due from him, and the landholder refuses to receive it or refuses to grant a receipt for it ; or

(b) when the rent is payable to two or more persons jointly, and the ryot is unable to obtain the joint receipt of the said persons for the money, and no person has been empowered to receive the rent on their behalf ; or

(c) when two or more persons severally claim the right to collect the rent or when the ryot entertains a bona fide doubt as to who is entitled to receive the rent which has become due ;

in case (b) of that sub-section, cause a notice of the receipt of the deposit to be posted at the landholders' village office or residence and in some conspicuous place in the village in which the holding is situated ; and in case (c) of that sub-section, cause a like notice to be served on every person who, the Collector has reason to believe, claims or is entitled to the deposit.]

71. (1) The ² [Collector] may pay the amount of the deposit to any person appearing to him to be entitled to the same, or may, if he thinks fit, and shall, if deposit has been made under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 68, and there has been no joint application for payment by the disputing parties, retain the amount pending the decision of the Civil Court as to the person so entitled :

Payment or refund of deposit.

³ [Provided that no order for payment shall be made within fifteen days from the date on which the notification referred to in section 70 was affixed in the office of the Collector receiving the deposit.]

(2) The payment less the money-order commission may be made by postal money-order under such rules as the ⁴ [State Government] may prescribe.

(3) If no payment is made under this section before the expiration of three years from the date on which a deposit is made, the amount deposited may, in the absence of any order of a competent court to the contrary, be repaid to the depositor upon his application and on his returning the receipt given by the ³ [Collector] with whom the rent was deposited or on his producing such other evidence of his having made the deposit as the Collector may consider sufficient.

Nothing in this section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering the same by suit in a Civil Court from a person to whom it has been paid under this section.

Barring of suits.

72. No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the ¹ [Government] or against any officer of the ² [Government], in respect of anything done by a ³ [Collector] regarding a deposit under sections 68 to 71.

Appraisalment and Division of Produce.

Rights and liabilities as to possession of crop.

73. (1) Where rent is taken by appraisalment of the standing crop the ryot shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the crop.

(2) Where rent is taken by division of the produce, the ryot shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the whole produce until it is divided, but shall not be entitled to remove any portion of the produce from the threshing-floor at such a time or in such a manner as to prevent the due division thereof at the proper time.

(3) In either case, the ryot shall be entitled to cut and harvest the produce in due course of husbandry without any interference on the part of the landholder. But before commencing to cut or gather the crop the ryot shall give reasonable intimation to the landholder or his authorized agent of his intention to do so.

(4) If the ryot cuts or removes any portion of the crop or of the produce at such a time or in such a manner as to prevent the due appraisalment or division thereof, the produce may be deemed to have been as full as the fullest crop of the same description in the neighbourhood on similar land for that harvest.

Application to Collector for appraisalment, division or determination of produce.

74. Where rent is taken by appraisalment of the crop or division of the produce—

(a) if either the landholder or the ryot fails to attend, either personally or by agent, at the proper time for making the appraisalment or the division; or

(b) if there is a dispute as to the quantity and value of the crop or as to what is a full crop under sub-section (4) of section 73, or as to the division of the produce, an application may be presented by either party to the Collector requesting that an officer be deputed to make the division or appraisal or determination.

With the application the applicant shall deposit such fee as may be prescribed by the ¹[State Government] in rules made in this behalf.

²[75. (1) On receiving such application, the Collector shall depute an officer by whom such division or appraisal or determination of rent shall be made and issue notice to the applicant and to the opposite party to appear before the said officer on the date and at the time and place specified in the notice together with a person who is a resident of the neighbourhood to serve as an assessor to assist in the division of the produce or appraisal or determination of the crop.

Procedure on such application.

(2) If the opposite party objects that the rent is not taken by division or appraisal or that no rent is payable, the officer deputed shall record the objection but shall proceed as hereinafter provided and transmit the objection when submitting his award to the Collector under sub-section (6).

(3) If, on or before the date appointed in the notice issued under sub-section (1), the dispute has been adjusted, the officer shall not take any further proceedings under this section.

(4) If either party fails to attend or to secure the attendance of an assessor as required by the notice referred to in sub-section (1), the officer deputed shall nominate an assessor on his behalf.

(5) The officer deputed shall record, and in making the award shall have regard to, the opinions of the assessors but shall not be bound thereby.

(6) In the case of a division of the produce, if the parties agree to the award, the division shall be made accordingly. If the parties do not agree to such division, and in all cases in which the rent is payable by appraisal of the standing crop, or where the value of a full crop has to be determined, the officer deputed shall make an estimate of the produce or crop and determine the rent payable. He shall then deliver his award after notice to the parties and submit it with a report of his proceedings to the Collector.

(7) The parties shall be at liberty to file objections to the award within fifteen days after the day on which the award was delivered.

(8) (a) The Collector shall hear such objections and the objections, if any, recorded under sub-section (2) and pass orders thereon after such further inquiry, if any, as may appear to him to be necessary.

(b) If an objection is raised that the rent is not payable by division or appraisement, or that no rent is payable, and the Collector upholds the objection, he shall set aside the award.

(c) If the objection is disallowed or if any other objection is raised or if no objection is raised, the Collector, except when the assessors agree with the officer deputed in which case the award shall, subject to the provisions of clause (e), be final, may confirm the award or may, after giving an opportunity to the parties to be heard, modify the award as he thinks fit.

(d) The Collector's order for the payment of rent and costs, if any, shall be final unless an objection of the nature described in clause (b) has been raised and shall be enforceable as a decree for arrears of rent.

(e) Where an objection of the nature described in clause (b) has been raised, the Collector's decision thereon shall be subject to an appeal to the District Court. Such appeal shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the Collector's decision.

(9) In any proceedings under this section the Collector may by order prohibit the removal of the produce until appraisement or division has been effected.]

entry.

76. For the purpose of making the division and appraisement, the officer deputed, with his assessors, may enter upon any land on which or into any building in which the produce is.

CHAPTER VI.

RECOVERY OF RENT BY SUIT OR BY DISTRAINT AND SALE OF MOVABLE PROPERTY OR OF THE HOLDING.

Modes of recovery of
rent.

[77. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, a landholder shall be entitled to recover any arrear of rent by a suit before the Collector, by distraint and sale of movable property or by sale of a ryot's holding.

Explanation.—Movable property for the purpose of this section shall include growing crops and the produce of land or of trees in the defaulter's holding.]

(Chapter VI.—Recovery of Rent.)

[77-A. No landholder shall have power to proceed against a ryot for the recovery of rent by distraint and sale of his movable property or by sale of his holding unless he shall have exchanged a patta and muchilika with such ryot or tendered him such a patta as he was bound to accept or unless a valid patta or muchilika continues in force : in the case of distraint and sale of movable property, the exchange of patta and muchilika or tender of such a patta as the ryot was bound to accept shall be not less than fifteen days prior to the distraint.

Conditions for recovery of arrears by distraint of movable property or sale of holding.

[77-B. A patta tendered by a landholder which is partially but not entirely correct shall nevertheless be enforceable to the extent to which it is found to be correct.

Enforceability of partially correct patta.

[77-C. Where the patta tendered for a revenue year includes any claim for rent in excess of the amount due under a previous subsisting engagement, all proceedings for the recovery of the rent by distraint and sale of movable property or by sale of the holding shall, on payment of such amount, be stopped and not proceeded with further. The claim for the balance shall be enforceable only by a suit before the Collector :

Provision where tendered patta includes claim exceeding that due under previous engagement.

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to the case referred to in sub-section (3) of section 42, in so far as the excess is claimed to be due to an increase in such area.

[77-D. A landholder shall not be entitled to distraint, except for an arrear of rent which has accrued due within the twelve months preceding the demand under section 78.

Arrears which may be enforced by distraint.

[77-E. Where the landholder has sued for any arrear of rent and obtained a decree he shall have no right to distraint movable property for such arrear or to bring the holding to sale therefor under sections 111 to 131 and all proceedings to sell the holding for such arrear taken before the passing of the decree shall be stopped and not proceeded with further.

Prohibition of distraint where decree for rent has been obtained.

[77-F. The following articles shall not be distrained for arrears of rent :—

Articles exempted from distraint.

(1) The necessary wearing apparel, cooking vessels, beds and bedding of the defaulter, and such personal ornaments of a woman as in accordance with religious usage cannot be parted with by her ;

(2) his ploughs and implements of husbandry, ploughing cattle and manure stocked by the ryot or cultivator and such seed grain as may be necessary for the due cultivation of the holding in the ensuing year.]

¹ Sections 77-A to 77-F were inserted by section 50 of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

(Chapter VI.—Recovery of Rent.)

Distrait
how to be effected.

78. (1) Before or at the time when a distrait is made the distrainer, who may be either the landholder or his duly authorized agent, shall serve on the defaulter a written demand specifying the amount of the arrear together with an account exhibiting the grounds on which the demand is made.

(2) The demand and account shall be dated and signed by the distrainer and shall within one year from the date on which the arrear became due be served upon the defaulter by delivering a copy to him or to some adult male member of his family at his usual place of abode provided that it is in the neighbourhood of the land to which the distress refers or to his authorized agent, or, when such service cannot be effected, by affixing a copy of the notice on some conspicuous part of the land to which it refers. The demand shall set forth—

- (a) the amount of the arrear due, with interest, if any;
- (b) the holding in respect of which it is due;
- (c) the period in respect of which it is due.

Distrait to be proportionate to arrear and list of property to be served on owner and copy sent to sale officer.

79. (1) Unless the demand is immediately satisfied, the distrainer may distrain property to the amount of the arrear [with interest] and the costs of the distress and shall forthwith prepare a list or description of the said property, date and sign the same, and without delay serve it on the defaulter in the manner provided in the preceding section for the service of a written demand, and a copy of such list or description, together with a copy of the written demand and account, shall be sent by the distrainer within ten days of the service of the demand on the defaulter to the public officer hereinafter called the sale officer empowered under ² [The Madras Rent and Revenue Sales Act, 1839] to sell property distrained for arrears.

(2) ³ [If any person other than the defaulter notifies the distrainer that he is the cultivator or the owner of the property] a copy of the demand and of the list or description of the property shall in like manner be served on or ⁴ [delivered to such person in all cases in which the property distrained consists of—

- (a) any crops or other products of the earth standing or ungathered on the holding; and

(b) any crops or other products of the earth which have grown on the holding and have been reaped or gathered and are deposited on the holding or on a threshing floor or place for treading out grain or the like, whether in the fields or in a homestead.]

80. A person authorized to distrain may apply to the nearest police station for such assistance as may be necessary to prevent any breach of the peace, and the authority to whom such application is made shall depute one or more police officers to be present at the time of such distress for such purpose.

Distrainer may procure police assistance.

81. The distress shall not be excessive ; ¹ [* * * * *] the value of the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible equal to the amount of the arrears due ¹ [with interest] and costs of distress.

Distress to be proportionate to arrears.

82. Distress shall be made after sunrise and before sunset and not otherwise.

Time of distress.

83. (1) Standing crops and other ungathered produce may, notwithstanding the distraint, be tended, and after notice to the distrainer, be reaped and gathered by the owner of the crop.

Right to reap and preserve produce.

(2) If the owner of the crop neglects to tend, reap or gather the said crop or produce, the distrainer may do so at the expense of the owner.

(3) The distrained property shall be placed in the charge of some person appointed by the distrainer for the purpose ; the person so appointed shall store the same in some convenient place in the neighbourhood at the expense of the owner.

84. It shall be lawful for the distrainer to force open any stable, cow-house, granary, godown, out-house or other building, and he may also enter any dwelling-house, the outer door of which may be open and may break open the door of any room in such dwelling-house for the purpose of distraining property belonging to a defaulter and kept therein ; provided always that it shall not be lawful for such distrainer to break open or enter any apartment in such dwelling-house appropriated for the zenana or residence of women, except as hereinafter provided.

What places distrainer may force open.

85. When a distrainer may have reason to suppose that the property of a defaulter is lodged within a dwelling-house, the outer door of which may be shut, or within any apartments appropriated to women, which by the usage of the country, are are considered private, such distrainer shall report the fact to the officer in charge of the nearest police station. Thereupon the officer in charge of the station shall send a police officer to the spot, in the presence of whom the distrainer may break open the outer door of such dwelling-house, and also the door of any room within the house except the zenana. The distrainer may also, in the presence of the police officer, after due notice given for the removal of women within the zenana, and after furnishing means for their removal in a suitable manner (if they be women of rank, who, according to the customs of the country, cannot appear in public), enter the zenana apartments for the purpose of distraining the defaulter's property, if any, kept therein. If any such property be found, it shall immediately be removed from such apartments in order that they may be left free for the return of the former occupants.

Power to force open doors, and to enter zenana in presence of a police officer.

Distrained
cattle or goods not to be used.

86. The distrainer shall not work the bullocks or cattle or make use of the property distrained. He shall provide necessary food for cattle or other livestock, and the cost thereof shall be a charge against the defaulting ryot and shall be recoverable as a cost of the distress.

Withdrawal of distress on deposit, payment or furnishing of security.

87. (1) After a distress has been made under this Chapter and at any time before the date appointed for sale, the defaulter, the cultivator or the owner of the property may tender or pay the amount specified in the written demand under section 78 with subsequent interest and costs ¹ [or the amount referred to in section 77-C] to the distrainer, or may furnish security to the satisfaction of the distrainer, whereupon the distrainer shall give a written acknowledgment of the tender, payment or security, and shall withdraw the distress forth with.

(2) If, at any time before the sale of the distrained property, the defaulter or cultivator or owner of the property distrained pays to the sale officer, the amount specified in the written demand under section 78 with subsequent interest and costs ¹ [or the amount referred to in section 77-C], the sale officer shall grant a receipt for the same and shall withdraw the distress forthwith.

Liability of distrainer for loss of, or injury to, distrained
property.

88. When property distrained may be stolen, lost, damaged or destroyed while in the keeping of the distrainer, by reason of his not having taken reasonable precautions for its preservation, the owner may sue the distrainer for damages before the Collector.

¹ These words, figures and letter were inserted by section 53 of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

(Chapter VI.—Recovery of Rent.)

89. A third person claiming a right or interest in any of the movable property under distraint may before the date of sale make an application to the Collector or sale officer and the Collector shall thereupon hold or cause to be held an immediate inquiry, and if he sees sufficient cause for doing so, may postpone the sale of such property. The Collector shall pass such order upon the claim as he shall deem fit.

90. When, after an application made by the distrainer, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Collector that,

(a) a defaulter has made a fraudulent conveyance of movable property to prevent distress for arrears,

(b) any person has forcibly or clandestinely taken away movable property once distrained, the Collector shall pass an order directing that the property be restored or that its value be paid to the distrainer.

[91. Any person aggrieved by an order under section 89 or section 90 may institute a suit before the Civil Court within one year from the date of the order to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute and for compensation.]

92. (1) The distrainer shall within fifteen days from the date of the distraint apply to the sale officer for the sale of the property specified in the list or description mentioned in section 79.

(2) If no such application is made, the distraint on the property shall cease to be in force at the expiration of the said period of fifteen days.

93. The application shall be in writing and shall specify the following particulars, namely,—

(a) The name and residence of the defaulter and in the case provided for in sub-section (2) of section 79, ² [also of the person who notifies that he is the cultivator or the owner ;]

(b) the amount due ;

(c) the date of the distraint ; and

(d) the place in which the distrained property is.

94. Together with the application, the distrainer shall deliver to the sale officer the fee prescribed for the service of notice.

95. (1) Immediately on receipt of such application and fee, the sale officer shall send a copy of the application and of the list or description mentioned in section 79 to the Collector and shall serve a notice on the defaulter, requiring him either to pay the amount demanded, or to institute a suit before the Collector to contest the distraint within fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice.

(2) In the case provided for in sub-section (2) of section 79 similar notice shall be served on the cultivator ¹ [or owner who may also file a suit before the Collector to contest the distraint within fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice.]

(3) The sale officer shall by order fix a date for the sale which shall not be less than fifteen days from the date of service of the notice under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, and shall cause it to be proclaimed by beat of drum in the village where the distrained property is; he shall also post a copy of his order in some conspicuous place in the village ² [and communicate it in person or by post to the defaulter and to the cultivator or owner.]

In fixing the date of sale, not less than seven days shall be allowed from the date of the aforesaid proclamation.

(4) The notice and proclamation shall specify—

(a) the property to be sold;

(b) the amount mentioned in the application under section 93; and

(c) the time and place at which the sale is to be held.

³ [(5) If for any reason the sale officer is unable to hold the sale on the date fixed under sub-section (3), he may, by order, adjourn the sale to another day. Such order shall be proclaimed and posted in the village in the same manner as an order under sub-section (3). A copy of such order shall be delivered in person or sent by post to the defaulter and to the cultivator or owner.]

When sale may take place.

96. If the defaulting ryot or ⁴ [cultivator or owner aforesaid] does not, within fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice referred to in section 95, file a suit before the Collector to set aside the distress, or if such a suit is filed and is decided against him by the Collector and if the sale has not been countermanded or postponed under section 89, section 103, or section 104, the sale officer, unless the said demand, with such expenses of the distraint as are allowed by him, is discharged in full, shall proceed in the manner hereinafter described to sell the property or such part of it as may be necessary to satisfy the demand with the expenses of the distraint and the costs of the sale.

(Chapter VI.—Recovery of Rent.)

97. The sale shall ordinarily be held in the village where the property was distrained or is stored or at the nearest place of public resort if the sale officer is of opinion that the property is likely to sell to better advantage there. In any case, the distrainer shall be bound to produce the property at the time and place of sale, and the cost of the transport thereof shall be considered part of the cost of distress. Place of sale.

98. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, crops or products which are in their nature speedily perishable shall be sold as early as possible by the distrainer, and the sale-proceeds shall be deposited with the sale officer. Sale of perishable articles.

99. (1) Crops or products which from their nature admit of being stored shall not be sold before they are reaped or gathered and are ready for storing. When crop may be sold.

(2) Crops or products which from their nature do not admit of being stored may be sold before they are reaped or gathered, and the purchaser shall be entitled to enter on the land by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf and do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and reaping or gathering them.

100. The property shall be sold by public auction, in one or more lots as the sale officer may think advisable, and if the demand with the costs of distress and sale is satisfied by the sale of a portion of the property the distress shall be immediately withdrawn with respect to the remainder. Manner of sale.

[101. If, on the property being put up for sale, a fair price in the estimation of the sale officer is not offered for it and if the defaulter, cultivator or owner of the property or a person authorized to act in his behalf or the distrainer applies to have the sale postponed until the next day or the next market day if a market is held at or near the place of sale, the sale shall be postponed until the next day or until the next market day, as the case may be, and shall then be completed, whatever price may be offered for the property.] Postponement of sale.

102. The price of every lot shall be paid at the time of sale, or as soon thereafter as the officer holding the sale directs, and in default of such payment the property shall be put up again and sold and any deficiency in price which may happen on such second sale and all expenses attending such second sale shall be ² [reported to the Collector by the sale officer and the Payment of purchase-money.

(Chapter VI.—Recovery of Rent.)

Collector may, on application by the distrainer, the defaulter, the cultivator or the owner and after notice to the defaulting purchaser and hearing his objections, if any, certify the amount recoverable from him and the amount so certified by the Collector shall be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser at the instance either of the distrainer, the defaulter, the cultivator or the owner as if the Collector had passed a decree therefor.]

Any sum recovered under this section from the defaulting purchaser shall be dealt with under section 106 as if it were proceeds of the sale.

Obligation to report irregularity in distraining.

103. The sale officer shall bring to the notice of the Collector any material irregularity committed by the distrainer under colour of this Act, and may in such case postpone the sale pending the Collector's order.

Effect of irregularity
in distrain-
ing.

104. (1) If it shall come to the knowledge of the Collector that the distrainer has not served on the ryot a written demand as required by section 78, or has failed to serve the list or description mentioned in section 79 ¹ [* * * * *] or that the distress was excessive, the Collector may either order the sale to proceed, or direct the issue of another notice or proclamation of sale, in which case he shall order that the costs of the resale shall be borne by the distrainer.

(2) If the Collector finds that the distraint is vexatious or groundless, he ² [shall order] the restoration of the distrained property.

Certificate to be given to purchaser

105. When the purchase-money has been paid in full, the sale officer shall deliver the property to the purchaser and shall give him a certificate signed by himself, describing the property purchased and the price paid.

Disposal of proceeds of sale.

106. (1) From the proceeds of every sale of distrained property under this Act, the sale officer shall make a deduction at a rate not exceeding one anna in the rupee on account of the costs of the sale, and shall remit the amount so deducted to the Tahsildar.

(2) He shall then pay to the distrainer the expenses incurred by the distrainer on account of the distraint, and of the issue of the notice and proclamation of the sale mentioned in section 95 to such amount as, after examining the statement of expenses furnished by the distrainer, he thinks proper to allow.

(Chapter VI.—Recovery of Rent.)

(3) The remainder shall be applied to the ¹[discharge of the amount for which the distraint was made with subsequent interest up to the date of payment.]

(4) The surplus (if any) shall be delivered to the person whose property has been sold and he shall receive from the sale officer a receipt for any arrears discharged from the proceeds of sale.

(5) If either the distrainer, or the owner of the distrained property, shall be dissatisfied with the sale officer's decision, the Collector shall, on an application being made to him by either party, determine the expenses incurred in distraining the property and bringing it to sale.

107. No officer holding a sale of property under this Act and no person employed by or subordinate to such officer, shall either directly or indirectly bid for, acquire or attempt to acquire any interest in any property sold at such sale.

Prohibition against bidding for or purchase of property by sale officer or subordinate.

108. (1) When an arrear of rent is realized from a tenant or cultivator by proceedings in distraint by any person other than his immediate landlord the tenant or cultivator shall be entitled to deduct the amount so realized from any rent payable by him to such landlord, and such landlord, if he is not the defaulter, shall in like manner be entitled to deduct the same amount from any rent payable by him to his landlord, and so on until the defaulter is reached.

Right of tenant or cultivator to deduct from rent amount paid for his landlord.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any tenant or cultivator making a payment under section 87 to institute a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery from the defaulter of any portion of the amount paid which he has not deducted under this section.

109. When any conflict arises between the right of a landholder distraining produce over which he has a first charge under sub-section (1) of section 5 and the right of a person claiming under an attachment by a Civil Court, the right of the landholder shall prevail; but if the property is sold by a Collector in consequence of such landholder's distress the surplus proceeds of the sale shall not be paid under section 106 to the person whose property has been sold, but shall be deposited in the Court from which the order of attachment issued.

Conflict between distress by landholder and attachment by court.

110. A tender of the amount of the arrears of rent claimed by the landholder shall be deemed valid though made under protest, and on such tender being made the distrainer shall be bound to refrain from distraining or selling the property, and Tender of amount under protest to be deemed valid.

Sale of Ryot's Holding.

Sale of holding.

111. When an arrear is not paid within the revenue year in which it accrued due, it shall be lawful for the landholder to sell the holding or any part thereof, in the manner herein-after provided, in satisfaction of the arrear and of interest thereon and of costs, if any, of the sale.

Notice of intention to sell.

¹ [112. (1)] When the landholder to whom an arrear is due intends to avail himself of the powers given by the last preceding section, he shall serve on the defaulter through the Collector a written notice stating the amount due for arrears, interest and costs, if any, the period for which and the holding in respect of which it is due, and informing him that if he does not pay the amount or ² [institute a suit] before the Collector contesting the right of sale within thirty days from the date of service of the notice, the said holding or any part thereof specified in the said notice will be sold. Such notice shall be ³ [delivered to the Collector] within one year from the end of the revenue year for which the arrear is due.

⁴ [Four copies of the notice together with the fee for service thereof shall be sent to the Collector who shall cause service to be effected upon the defaulter in the manner provided in sub-section (2) of section 78 for the service of a written demand. A copy of the notice shall also be sent by post to the defaulter.]

Copies of the notice shall in every case be posted at conspicuous places on the land to which it relates and in the village where the land is situated.

⁵ [(2) Any person having an interest in the holding or part thereof who would be affected by its sale may institute a suit before the Collector contesting the right of sale within the period fixed in sub-section (1).]

115. (1) If no suit has been instituted, such application shall be made within forty-five days of the posting by the Collector of intimation of service under section 113.

Period of limitation for application under section 114.

(2) If a suit has been instituted and it has been disposed of against the defaulter or withdrawn, such application shall be made within thirty days of the date of the disposal or withdrawal.

² [116. (1) On receipt of such application, the Collector shall issue notice to the parties and after hearing such of them as appear shall determine the extent of land to be sold, the lots if any in which it shall be sold, the order in which the lots shall be sold and the estimated value of each lot and shall order the sale, appoint an officer to conduct the sale, draw up the proclamation of sale and direct copies thereof in the vernacular of the taluk to be posted in his office and in the taluk office :

Proclamation of sale and appointment of selling officer.

Provided that no such lot shall, except with the consent of the landholder, be less than a revenue field.

(2) The proclamation shall specify—

(a) (i) the land to be sold ;

(ii) the lots, if any, in which it shall be sold ;

(iii) the order in which the lots shall be sold ;

(iv) the estimated value of each lot ; and

(v) the rent or rates of rent payable in respect of each lot ;

(b) subject to the provisions of section 77-C, the amount specified in the written notice under section 112 or where it has been declared by the Collector in a suit contesting the right of sale instituted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 112 that the ryot is liable to pay only a part of the amount specified in such notice, such part, together in each case with costs and interest, if any, up to the date of the order of the sale ;

(c) any encumbrance subject to which the land is liable to be sold ; and

Duty of selling officer.

[117. (1) The selling officer shall, by order, fix the date, time and place of the sale and direct a copy of the order in the vernacular of the taluk to be posted in the taluk office and cause the contents of the order and of the proclamation of sale to be published by beat of drum in the village where the holding is situated. He shall also post a copy of the order and of the proclamation of sale in the village chavadi or if there is no village chavadi, in a conspicuous place in the village and shall send a copy of his order and of the proclamation of sale to the defaulter by post. A copy of the order and proclamation shall be published in the District Gazette.

(2) In fixing the date of sale not less than thirty days shall be allowed from the date on which publication by beat of drum is made as aforesaid.

(3) If, for any reason, the selling officer is unable to hold the sale on the date fixed under sub-section (1), he may from time to time by order adjourn the sale to another day. Such order shall be published and posted in the village in the same manner as an order under sub-section (1). A copy of such order shall be delivered to the defaulter in person or sent to him by post.]

IRRIGATION WORKS.

'ayacut.'

136-A. In this Chapter—

(1) the 'ayacut' of an irrigation work shall mean all the lands which are entitled to irrigation under the irrigation work;

'major
work.'

(2) 'major irrigation work' shall mean an irrigation work of which the ayacut is 200 acres or more in extent and any other irrigation work notified by the District Collector under section 136-B; and

'minor
work.'

(3) 'minor irrigation work' shall mean any irrigation work which is not a major irrigation work.

¹ This paragraph was added by section 76 of the Madras Estates Land (Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act VIII of 1934).

(Chapter VIII.—Irrigation Works.)

136-B. The District Collector may, by notification in the District Gazette, declare that any irrigation work shall be deemed to be, or to be part of, a major irrigation work for the purposes of this Chapter, notwithstanding that its ayacut is less than 200 acres. Notification of certain works as major irrigation works.

(a) on the ground that the work is so situated that any railway may appear liable to be injured from the escape or overflow of water therefrom ; or

(b) for any other special reason.

The ground or reason for every declaration under this section shall be specified in the notification.

136-C. Applications under this Chapter shall be made— Applications to whom to be made.

(a) to the District Collector in the case of a major irrigation work, and

(b) to the Revenue Divisional Officer in the case of a minor irrigation work.

136-D. The officer to whom an application is made under this Chapter may himself inquire into the application or depute an officer subordinate to him not below the rank of a Deputy Tahsildar to make the inquiry. The officer making the inquiry shall fix a date and the time and place at which the inquiry will take place and cause to be served on the respondent or respondents a copy of the application and a notice to show cause why the order prayed for should not issue. The notice shall also be posted in the village or villages where the land irrigated is situated and shall also be published in the manner prescribed so as to give notice to the ryots holding lands in the ayacut of the irrigation work. On the day fixed in the notice or, on any other date to which the inquiry may be adjourned, the officer making the inquiry shall hear the applicant or applicants, the respondent or respondents and any ryots interested who may attend, and may take evidence and make such further inquiry as he may think fit. If the inquiry is made by an officer other than the officer to whom the application is made, he shall make a report thereon to the officer to whom the application is made and shall send him the records of the enquiry ; and the officer to whom the application is made shall pass his order after considering the report and hearing the objections, if any, of the parties. Inquiry on application.

137. The landholder in whose estate an irrigation work is situated or any ryot or ryots holding land irrigable from the irrigation work may apply for an order determining what lands are or should be included in the ayacut of such irrigation work. On inquiry or report under section 136-D, the officer to whom the application is made shall pass an order— Determination of ayacut.

(a) determining what lands are or should be included in the ayacut of such irrigation work, and

(Chapter VIII.—Irrigation Works.)

(b) classifying any such lands as 'irrigated' or 'garden' if they are not already so classified, and

(c) determining the rate of rent to be paid on the lands so classified.

Sanction to
ayacut.

137-A. Where the ayacut of an irrigation work in an estate has been determined by an order passed under section 137 or in a record of rights published under Chapter XI, the landholder of the estate may apply for sanction to extend such ayacut by the inclusion in it of the land or lands mentioned in the application. On inquiry or report under section 136-D the officer to whom the application is made may pass an order—

(a) sanctioning the extension of the ayacut by the inclusion of such lands mentioned in the application as he finds can be included in the ayacut without prejudice to the irrigation in the customary manner of the lands already included in the ayacut, and

(b) reclassifying the land newly included in the ayacut under clause (a) as 'irrigated' or 'garden' and

(c) determining the rate of rent to be paid on lands so reclassified.

Prohibition of unauthorized extension of ayacut.

137-B. Where the ayacut of an irrigation work in an estate has been determined by an order passed under section 137 or by a record of rights published under Chapter XI, the landholder shall not be entitled to extend such ayacut except in pursuance of an order under section 137-A.

Reclassification of irrigated or garden land as unirriga-ted.

137-C. Any ryot holding land under a landholder as irrigated or garden land in the ayacut of an irrigation work, may apply for an order for the reclassification of such land as unirrigated land, on the ground that it has not been possible for a period of not less than six consecutive years immediately prior to the date of application, to irrigate such land from such irrigation work. If on inquiry or report under section 136-D the officer to whom the application is made finds that it has not been possible for a period of not less than six consecutive years immediately prior to the date of application, to irrigate such land or any portion of it from the irrigation work in the ayacut of which it is included, he may pass an order reclassifying such land or portion as unirrigated and determining the rate of rent to be paid on the land or portion so reclassified.

Determination of rate of rent on reclassified lands.

137-D. (1) In determining the rate of rent under clause (c) of section 137, clause (c) of section 137-A or section 137-C, the officer to whom the application is made shall have due regard to the rate of rent for similar lands, if any, with similar advantages in the neighbourhood.

(Chapter VIII.—Irrigation Works.)

(2) Nothing contained in Chapters III and XI shall be deemed to affect the powers of the said officer to determine the rates of rent under any of the provisions referred to in sub-section (1).

138. Any ryot or ryots holding land under a landholder in the ayacut of an irrigation work and

(a) paying not less than one-fourth of the rent of the ayacut, or

Application for repair of
work.

(b) holding not less than one-fourth of the extent of the ayacut, or

(c) depositing such amount not exceeding two hundred rupees in the case of a major irrigation work and one hundred rupees in the case of a minor irrigation work as may be demanded by way of security may apply for the issue of an order for the repair of the work if the work is in such a state of disrepair as materially to prejudice the irrigation of the lands dependent upon it and if the landholder upon his or their application has refused or neglected to execute the necessary repairs. The application shall state in sufficient detail the facts on which the claim of the applicant or applicants is based and the general nature of the defects in the irrigation work. Any ryot or ryots intending to file an application under this section and any person or persons authorized by him or them shall have free access to the irrigation work concerned to enable him or them to state these facts and the general nature of these defects.

Explanation.—Repairs shall not include petty works such as yearly clearance of supply and distribution channels or minor repairs which the ryots are by law or custom bound to carry out.

139. (1) (a) If on inquiry or report under section 136-D, the officer to whom the application is made is satisfied—

Inquiry and order on such application.

(i) that the irrigation work is in such a state of disrepair as materially to prejudice the irrigation of the lands dependent upon it ; and

(ii) that the state of disrepair is not due exclusively to the wrongful acts of the ryots or to omission to make such petty works or minor repairs as the ryots are by law or custom bound to carry out, he may pass an order specifying the works necessary for the restoration of the irrigation work to efficiency and the estimated cost of the same and requiring the landholder to execute the said works within a specified time which may be extended from time to time by the officer. In passing an order specifying or extending the time, the officer shall consider any representations made by the ryot or ryots who made the application and pay due regard to the capacity of the estate of such landholder to bear within such time, the cost of such works in addition to the cost of other works, if any, ordered by such officer or by any other officer to be executed by such landholder or undertaken by such landholder of his own accord.

(b) If on such inquiry or report, the officer to whom the application is made is satisfied—

(i) that the irrigation work is not in such a state of disrepair as materially to prejudice the irrigation of the lands dependent upon it ; or

(ii) that the state of disrepair is due exclusively to the wrongful acts of the ryots or to omission to make such petty works or minor repairs as the ryots are by law or custom bound to carry out, he shall dismiss the application.

(2) (a) The costs incurred by the applicant or applicants or by the landholder in connexion with the application, shall be in the discretion of the officer to whom the application is made and he shall have full power to determine by whom and to what extent such costs are to be paid :

Provided that the amount awarded as costs shall be reasonable and that the amount awarded to the landholder shall in no case exceed two hundred rupees in the case of a major irrigation work and one hundred rupees in the case of a minor irrigation work.

(b) Where any security has been deposited under section 138 the officer aforesaid may, if he awards costs to the landholder under clause (a), pay such costs out of the amount of such security and where such officer is satisfied that the application was frivolous, he may also declare the whole or part of the balance, if any, of the said amount to be forfeited to the Government.

(3) An order passed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall declare that, if the landholder refuses or within the time specified in such order as extended from time to time under that clause, fails to execute the works, he shall deposit the amount of the estimated cost within a time to be specified in that behalf. If the landholder fails to make the deposit within the time so specified or within such further time as may be allowed, the officer passing the order shall recover the same from the landholder as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(4) On the estimated cost being deposited or recovered as aforesaid, the officer shall get the works executed as soon as may be by such persons and in such manner as he may direct and meet the cost of such works from the amount deposited or recovered as aforesaid.

(5) If the amount of the estimated cost deposited by or recovered from the landholder as aforesaid is found insufficient for the completion of the works, the officer may require the landholder to deposit such further sum as may be necessary for the purpose within a specified time and failing such deposit shall recover the same as if it were an arrear of land revenue and the amount so deposited or recovered shall be utilized by the officer for meeting the cost of the works.

(6) If the amount deposited or recovered from the landholder under this section exceeds the cost of the works, such excess shall be refunded to him.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the cost of any works shall include the cost, if any, of the inspection of the same after completion.

140. (1) Where the default to maintain the irrigation work in good repair is that of a holder of a dasabandam inam granted prior to the permanent settlement and confirmed but not enfranchised by the British Government, the holder of the estate served by the irrigation work shall be entitled to call on the holder of the dasabandam inam to execute the works specified in the order passed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 139 or to pay for their execution and on his default to do either, such holder of the estate may execute the said works as directed in the order and recover the cost of the same from the dasabandam inamdar by suit before the Collector. The amount of the decree may be recovered as if it were an arrear of rent.

inamdar.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to affect the right of such holder of the estate to resume such inam for proper cause.

141. At the time of passing an order under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 139 or at any time subsequent thereto, the officer passing the order may, on the application of any ryot or ryots holding lands in the ayacut of the irrigation work in respect of which such order is passed, direct such temporary reduction of rent as he thinks fair and equitable until the works specified in such order have been completed.

entitled to irrigation from the work and the extent of land belonging to the landholder for which he is entitled free of separate charge to irrigation from the work. The portion due by the landholder shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to irrigation works belonging to the ¹ (Government) which the ¹ (Government) ² (is) bound to maintain, and from which the landholder is entitled to a supply of water free of charge.

(3) A landholder who is dissatisfied with an order of the District Collector under this section may sue in a Civil Court to have it set aside or modified on either of the following grounds :—

(a) that he is under no obligation to repair the irrigation work concerned ;

(b) that the proportion of the charge which he is liable to pay under sub-section (1) has been wrongly calculated.

If the order is set aside or modified, the Court shall direct the refund of any amount found to have been improperly levied.

law, the landholder shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be bound to recognize such transfer or devolution and enter into a fresh engagement or engagements as hereinafter provided.

(2) Where a holding or any portion thereof is transferred by the act of a ryot, the landholder on receiving notice thereof in writing from the transferor and the transferee shall recognize the transfer.

Any person presenting for registration any document transferring a holding or any portion thereof shall present therewith a notice in writing signed by the transferor and transferee, and addressed to the landholder asking for recognition of the transfer, and shall also pay to the registering officer such fee as the ¹(State Government) may prescribe for the transmission of such notice to the landholder. The landholder shall recognize the transfer on receipt of the said notice.

(3) Where there is a binding adjudication as to the fact and validity of a transfer of a holding or any portion thereof in any proceeding before a Civil or Revenue Court to which both the transferor and the transferee are parties, the landholder shall, on the production of a certified copy of the judgment, decree or order in such proceeding, be bound to recognize such transfer.

(4) Where a holding or any portion thereof is transferred in pursuance of a decree or order of a Civil Court, or by a sale for arrears of rent, or for arrears of Government revenue, or for any demand recoverable as arrears of Government revenue or as arrears of rent, such transfer shall be recognized by the landholder on production of a certified copy of the decree or order establishing the transfer, or in cases in which the transfer is effected by sale under the order of any Court or public officer, on production of the sale certificate or a certified copy thereof.

(5) Where a holding or any portion thereof devolves by operation of law, the landholder on receiving notice thereof in writing from the person on whom the holding has devolved shall recognize the devolution.

(6) (a) Where either the transferor or the transferee fails to join the other in applying to the landholder for recognition of the transfer, the transferee or the transferor, or where any dispute arises as to the person or persons on whom the holding or portion thereof has devolved, any person claiming by devolution the holding or portion, may apply to the Collector for an order certifying the transfer or the devolution as the case may be.

(b) The Collector, after giving notice to the transferor or transferee or other person interested and after making such inquiry as he thinks fit as to the fact and validity of the transfer or as to the person or persons on whom the holding or portion has devolved, may pass an order certifying the transfer or devolution as the case may be. On production of a certified copy of such order the landholder shall be bound to recognize the transfer or the devolution.

(c) Nothing in this sub-section shall bar any suit in a Civil Court for establishing or setting aside any transfer or for enforcing any claim based on a devolution by operation of law.

(7) Where the landholder has recognized the transfer or devolution of any holding or portion thereof under the foregoing provisions of this section—

(i) in case the transfer or devolution is of the entire holding, the landholder shall be bound to enter into a separate engagement with the transferee or the person on whom the holding devolves, or if there is more than one such transferee or person, into a joint engagement with such transferees or persons ;

(ii) in case the transfer or devolution is of a portion of the holding and the portion is not defined by metes and bounds, the landholder shall be bound to enter into a joint engagement with the transferor and the transferee and the other co-sharers, if any, or with the person or persons on whom the portion of the holding devolves and the other co-sharers, if any :

Provided that if the transferor has ceased to possess any interest in the holding, his name may with his consent be omitted from such engagement ;

(iii) in case the transfer or devolution is of a portion of the holding and the portion is defined by metes and bounds the landholder shall be bound to enter into separate engagements with the holders of the subdivisions :

Provided that the landholder shall not be bound to enter into such engagements unless each of the subdivisions conforms to the rules made by the [State Government] in that behalf.

(8) In any case falling under the proviso to clause (iii) of sub-section (7), where the landholder does not enter into separate engagements with the holders of the subdivisions he shall be bound to enter into an engagement with them jointly.

(9) The distribution of rent between the subdivisions referred to in clause (iii) of sub-section (7) shall be made in the first instance by the landholder.

If the distribution of rents be delayed for over six months or is not assented to by any of the parties concerned, the Collector shall on application by any such party make such distribution and the same shall be binding on the landholder and on all the other parties concerned.

(10) The transfer of a holding or the recognition thereof by the landholder shall in no way affect the charge on the holding or the lands comprised therein for the rent which accrued due thereon prior to the date of the transfer or its or their liability therefor.

the portion relinquished is accessible, and provided that the apportionment of the rent on the part retained shall be made by the landholder subject to revision by the Collector on application by the ryot. The portion retained shall be treated as a new holding and a fresh 'patta' and 'muchilika' shall be exchanged in respect of the same for the revenue year next succeeding that in which notice of relinquishment is given.

(2) A ryot who so relinquishes his holding or part of his holding shall be liable at the suit of the landholder before the Collector to indemnify him against any loss of rent on the holding or the part thereof for the revenue year next following the date of the relinquishment, unless the ryot gives to the landholder on or before the first day of April notice of his intention to relinquish.

150. (1) If the landholder refuses to receive any notice under sub-section (2) of section 149, the ryot may, not later than the fifteenth day of April, make an application to ^{Application to Collector for service of notice.} [the Collector] who shall thereupon cause the notice to be served on such landholder, the ryot paying the costs of service.

(2) Every such notice shall be deemed to have been received at the time it was first tendered.

151. ³(1) A landholder may institute a suit before the Collector to eject ^{Suit for ejectment.} [a ryot] from his holding only on the ground that the ryot has materially impaired the value of the holding for agricultural purposes and rendered it substantially unfit for such purposes.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section a landholder may sue before the Collector for compensation in addition to, or in lieu of, ejectment; or for an injunction, or for the repair of the damage or waste, with or without compensation.

152. If in any suit under the preceding section ^{Decree where damage is repairable or pecuniary compensation would be adequate relief.} [a ryot] is found liable to ejectment, but it appears that the damage to the holding admits of being repaired, or that pecuniary compensation would afford adequate relief, the decree shall provide that, if within one month from the date thereof or such further time as the Collector for reasons to be recorded

³ This sub-section was added by section 2 of the Madras Estates Land (Second Amendment) Act, 1945 (Madras Act XIV of 1945), re-enacted permanently by section 2 of, and the First Schedule to, the Madras Re-enacting (No. II) Act, 1948 (Madras Act VIII of 1948).

Chapter XII—Land-holder's (Private Land.)

Provided that in computing the period of limitation for any such application in respect of an order passed before the commencement of the Madras Estates Land (Second Amendment) Act, 1945, the period between the date on which the special Tribunal was dissolved and the date of such commencement shall be excluded.

[185-B. (1) Any land in respect of which the kudivaram is declared under section 185-A to have vested in the landholder on the first day of November 1933 and to have been retained by him ever since shall be ryoti land.

Acquisition of occupancy right in lands in which kudivaram is declared to be inamdar.

(2) In respect of any land referred to in sub-section (1) the landholder shall, on the application of the tenant and on the tender by him as compensation of an amount equal to the annual rent payable in respect of the land as may have been agreed to by the landholder together with the cost of preparing any instrument required for the purpose, confer upon the tenant a permanent right of occupancy in respect of the said land :

Provided that in the case of a dispute as to the amount payable as compensation, the tenant or the landholder may apply to the Collector to fix the same and the Collector may determine an amount equal to the annual rent payable in respect of the land as the amount payable as compensation.

(3) If a landholder to whom an application and tender have been made by a tenant fails for a period of one month to confer a permanent right of occupancy, the tenant may deposit the amount payable as compensation together with the cost of preparing any instrument required for the purpose in the Collector's office and apply to the Collector to confer on him a permanent right of occupancy in respect of that land.

(4) The Collector shall thereupon give notice of the application to the landholder and after hearing him if he appears and making such inquiry as he thinks necessary, may execute any instrument required for conferring a permanent right of occupancy upon the tenant in respect of the land and such execution shall have the same effect as an execution by the landholder.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 151 or in any other provisions of this Act, where the tenant—

(a) fails within a period of one year from the date of the declaration referred to in sub-section (1) to make an application and tender to the landholder under the first paragraph of sub-section (2), or

(Chapter XV.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.)

(2) Subject to any rules so made and subject also to the other provisions of this Act and the following modifications and additions, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall apply to all such suits, applications, appeals and proceedings so far as they are not inconsistent therewith :—

Central Act V of 1908.

(a) (i) The plaint shall specify, in addition to the particulars mentioned in rule 1 of Order VII of the said Code, the name of the village in which the land to which the suit relates is situated, the designation, if any, of the land and a description of the land sufficient for its identification ;

(ii) Where the suit is for the recovery of rent due on land situated within an area in which a record-of-rights has been prepared and published, the plaint shall further contain a statement of the rent of the holding according to the record-of-rights :

Provided that if the Court sees fit at any time to require it, a copy of, or extract from, the record-of-rights relating to the holding shall be produced by the plaintiff, or shall, if necessary, on the requisition of the Court, be supplied by the Collector on payment by the plaintiff or the defendant as the Court may direct of such fee as the ¹ [State Government] may by rule under this Act prescribe ;

(iii) If the suit is for arrears of rent the plaint shall contain a statement of account showing the instalments payable for the period to which the suit relates, the amount, if any, received, and the amount claimed to be due.

(b) No set-off whether legal or equitable shall be pleaded by way of defence to any suit under this Act.

(c) When any rent roll or collection or measurement papers have been produced by a landholder in any Court, in a suit, application or proceeding pending therein, copies of or extracts from such documents which have been certified by a duly authorized officer of such Court to be true copies or extracts, may be admitted in evidence in proof of the originals in any other suit, application or proceeding instituted in the same or another Court unless the Court in which such copies or extracts are produced sees fit to require the production of the originals.

(d) To the particulars not liable to attachment or sale under section 60 of the said Code shall be added 'manure stocked by an agriculturist.'

(e) Standing timber, growing crops or other products of the earth may be attached and sold in execution of a decree in the same manner as movable property, and if the property attached is growing crops or other products of the earth, the judgment-debtor and the decree-holder shall have the same rights in respect of the tending, gathering, and storing thereof as the cultivator and the distrainer, respectively, would have had under section 83 if such crops or products had been distrained for an arrear of rent.

(3) In any suit, application or proceeding under this Act to recover rent or to contest dstraint or the right of sale of a holding, if a party admits that rent as claimed or part thereof is due but pleads that it is due not to the plaintiff or applicant or the defendant or respondent, as the case may be, but to a third person, or pleads that the provisions of this Act have not been complied with, the Court shall, except for special reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to take cognizance of the plea unless the party aforesaid pays into Court the amount admitted to be due or such reasonable portion of the amount as the Court may direct.

(4) Where such a payment is made and the plea is that the rent to the extent admitted is not due to the plaintiff or applicant or the defendant or respondent, as the case may be, but to a third person, the Court shall forthwith cause notice of the payment to be served on the third person.

Unless the third person, within three months from the receipt of the notice, institutes a suit before the Civil Court against the plaintiff or applicant or the defendant or respondent and therein obtains an order restraining payment, the amount in deposit shall be paid out to the plaintiff or applicant or the defendant or respondent, as the case may be, on his application.

Nothing in this sub-section shall affect the right of any person to recover by suit in a Civil Court from the plaintiff or applicant or the defendant or respondent, as the case may be, any payment made to him under it.

(5) In any suit, application or proceeding under this Act to recover rent or to contest dstraint or the right of sale of a holding, if a party admits that rent is due from him to the plaintiff or applicant or the defendant or respondent, as the case may be, but pleads that the amount claimed is in excess of the amount due, the Court shall, except for special reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to take cognizance of the plea unless the party aforesaid pays into Court the amount so admitted to be due or such reasonable portion of the amount as the Court may direct.

(6) If any suit or application between landholder and ryot as such is adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise, or if the defendant or respondent satisfies the plaintiff or applicant in respect to the whole or any part of the matter of the suit or application, the Court may pass a decree or order in accordance with such agreement, compromise or satisfaction, so far as it relates to the suit or application, but may refuse to do so if, for reasons to be recorded, the Court considers such agreement, compromise or satisfaction, to be unfair and inequitable.
