23. Departments.—(1) Each School shall have such number of Departments as may be prescribed from time to time.

(2) Each Department shall have a Head whose appointment, powers and duties shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The Head of the Department shall be the Executive Head and shall be responsible for the faithful observance of Statutes, Ordinances, and Regulations relating to the Department and for the organization and conduct of teaching, research and extension work in the Department under him.

(4) The Head of the Department shall also be responsible to the Director of School for the teaching, research and extension programmes entrusted to his Department.

24. The Department Governing Council.—(1) All permanent teachers of the concerned Department shall be the members of the Department Governing Council.

(2) All policies regarding the academic and administrative matters pertaining to the Department shall be taken in a meeting of the Department Governing Council.

(3) The Department Governing Council shall prescribe the qualifications of the examiners and approve the panel of examiners for internal examination.

(4) The Head of Department shall implement the decisions of the Department Governing Council after due approval by the concerned bodies.

(5) The Head of Department shall appoint examiners, and conduct the internal examination.

(6) The Department Governing Council shall design the syllabus and make proposal regarding the courses of study in the Department to the School Governing Council.

(7) The Department Governing Council shall meet at least once in a month, or as and when required to review the academic activities and to suggest need based curricular changes.

25. The Faculties.—(1) The faculties shall be the principal academic co-ordination authorities of the University in respect of studies and research in the subjects included in the faculty and also in respect of studies and research in multi-disciplinary faculties.

(2) The University shall have such faculties as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) A faculty shall be constituted, divided or combined with another faculty or abolished only with the approval of the Academic Council.

(4) The faculty shall comprise such subjects as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(5) The faculty shall consist of the following members, namely:—

(i) the Dean—Ex-officio Chairperson;

(ii) the Chairperson of each Board of Studies for the subjects comprised in the Faculty;

(iii) one member of each Board of Studies to be elected by the members of the Board of Studies from among themselves out of whom at least one shall be a postgraduate teacher; and

(iv) two subject experts, preferably from outside the State, nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.

(6) The term of members of a faculty shall be three years or such period as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

26. The powers and functions of Faculties.—(1) The faculty shall have the following powers and functions, namely:—

(a) to consider and report on any matter referred to it by any Council including the University Governing Council, Academic Council or Planning Committee;

(b) to consider and approve recommendations of the Board of Studies in the faculty on matters not affecting any other faculty;

(c) to consider and make recommendations to the Academic Council on academic matters within its purview which affect any other faculty or faculties or which involve administrative or financial implications;

(d) to consider and recommend to the Academic Council introduction of new courses, inter-disciplinary courses and short-term training programmes referred to it by the Board of Studies or Board of Inter-disciplinary Studies, if any, constituted by the Statutes;

(4) The University shall furnish such statements, accounts, reports and other particulars as the Government may require relating to any grant made by the Government and shall take such action and furnish such statements, accounts, reports and other particulars relating to the utilization of any grant within such time and in such manner as the Government may direct.

(5) It shall be competent for the University, in furtherance of its objectives, to accept grants from the Government of Kerala or any other State Government or donations under such conditions as may be agreed upon between the University and the grantor or donor.

(6) The University may have such other funds as may be prescribed.

(7) The General fund, the foundation fund and other funds of the University shall be managed according to provisions laid down in the Statutes.

(8) The Government shall make non lapsable lump sum grants to the University every year as follows:—

(a) a grant not less than the expenditure incurred in the previous year by the institutions of the Fisheries and Ocean Studies and other Government and University Departments on such of the activities as are transferred to the University;

(b) a grant not less than the estimated net expenditure towards pay and allowances of the staff, contingencies, supplies and services of the University other than that towards the activities of the institutions referred to in clause (a);

(c) a grant to meet such additional items of expenditure, recurring and non-recurring as the Government may deem necessary for the proper functioning of the University.

(9) The Government shall also make a non-lapsable lump sum grant to the University in respect of schemes included in the Five Year Plan and transfer to the University, an amount equal to the net outlay as shown in the annual plan for the implementation of schemes.

(10) The Government may make Adjustments for the anticipated assistance from the Central Government and other agencies sponsoring such schemes:

Provided that such assistance shall come to the University direct and not through the Government.

63. Finance Committee.--(1) The University Governing Council shall constitute a Finance Committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Finance Secretary to Government, Finance Officer and two members chosen by the University Governing Council, one from among its non-official members and the other from among its ex-officio members who have expertise in the field.

(2) The Finance Committee shall have the following powers, namely:—

(a) to examine the annual accounts of the University and to advise the University Governing Council thereon;

(b) to examine the annual budget estimates of the University and to advise the University Governing Council thereon;

(c) to review the financial position of the University from time to time;

(d) to make recommendations to the University Governing Council on all matters relating to the Finance of the University;

(e) to make recommendations to the University Governing Council on all proposals involving expenditure for which no provision has been made in the budget or which involve expenditure in excess of the amount provided in the budget.

64. Accounts and Audit.--(1) The annual accounts of the University shall be prepared by the Finance Officer under the direction of the Vice-Chancellor and all the moneys accrued to or received by the University from whatever source and all amounts disbursed and paid by the University shall be entered in the accounts.

(2) The annual accounts of the University shall be submitted by the Vice-Chancellor to the Government, which shall cause an audit to be conducted by the Accountant General or the Director of Local Fund Audit.

(3) The accounts when audited shall be printed and copies thereof together with the audit report shall be presented by the Vice-Chancellor to the University Governing Council and the Chancellor.

(4) The University Governing Council shall submit a copy of the accounts and audit report to the Government along with a statement of action taken by the University on the audit report for the financial year ending on 31st March of the year, on or before the 1st day of March of succeeding year and on receipt of the same, the Government shall immediately cause the same to be laid on the table of the Legislative Assembly if it is in session, and if it is not in session, in the next session immediately following such receipt.

CHAPTER XI

STATUTES, ORDINANCES, REGULATIONS AND ORDERS

65. Statutes.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Governing Council shall have, in addition to all other powers vested in it, the power to make Statutes to provide for the administration and management of the affairs of the University.

(2) Statutes may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (i) the powers and duties of the officers of the University;
- (ii) the constitution, powers and duties of the authorities of the University not specifically provided for in this Ordinance;

(xvii) the taking over or transferring, in public interest, of the management of a college or institution by the University and the conditions for such taking over or transferring, subject to the approval of the State Government; and

(xviii) any matter as may be prescribed by Statutes or which is necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Ordinance.

66. Procedure for making Statutes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, the Government shall make the first Statute of the University.

(2) The Governing Council may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes or may amend or repeal the Statutes referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The Statute may be made, amended or repealed by the Governing Council in the manner hereinafter provided,—

(i) The Governing Council may take into consideration the draft of a Statute either moved by any member of the Council or on a proposal by the Vice-Chancellor;

(ii) The Governing Council, if it thinks necessary may also obtain the opinion of any officer, authority or body of the University in regard to any draft Statute which is before it for consideration:

Provided that, where any such draft Statute pertains to academic matters, the Governing Council shall obtain the opinion of the Academic Council before considering the same;

(iii) The Governing Council shall not propose the draft of a Statute or of an amendment to a Statute affecting the status, powers or constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion upon the proposal and any opinion so expressed shall be in writing and shall be considered by the Governing Council.

(iv) No Statute providing for the conditions for, or procedure relating to, the affiliation of private colleges shall be passed by the Governing Council without the previous approval of the Government.

(v) Every Statute passed by the Governing Council shall be submitted to the Chancellor who may give or withhold his assent thereto, or send it back to the Governing Council for reconsideration;

(vi) No Statute passed by the Governing Council shall be valid or shall come into force until assented to, by the Chancellor.

67. Ordinances.—Subject to the conditions prescribed by or under this Ordinance, the Governing Council may make Ordinances, to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(i) the conditions under which students shall be admitted to courses of study for degree, diploma, certificate and other academic distinctions;

(ii) the fees to be charged for enrolment of students for attending such courses in the University and that for admission to the examinations leading to degrees, diplomas, certificate and other academic distinctions, and for registration of graduates and any other type of fees to be charged;

(iii) the conditions of residence, conduct and discipline of the students of the University, and action to be taken against them for breach of discipline or misconduct, including the following:—

(a) use of unfair means at an examination or abetment thereof;

(b) refusal to appear or give evidence in any authorised inquiry by an officer in charge of an examination or by any officer or authority of the University ; or

(c) disorderly or otherwise objectionable conduct, whether within or outside the University;

(iv) the conditions governing the appointment and duties of examiners;

(v) the conduct of examinations and other tests and the manner in which the candidates may be assessed or examined by the examiners;

(vi) the classification of teachers, staff strength in various departments, workload of teachers and other staff in the University departments and affiliated colleges;

(vii) the inspection of affiliated colleges, recognised institutions, and hostels;

(viii) the mode of execution of contracts or agreements for, by or on behalf of the University;

(ix) the rules to be observed and enforced by affiliated colleges and recognised institutions regarding transfer of students wherever necessary;

(x) the duties and functions of students' associations and other organisations in colleges;

(xi) all other matters which, by or under this Act or Statutes, are to be or may be, provided by Ordinances; and

(xii) generally, all matters for which provision is, in the opinion of the Governing Council, necessary for the exercise of the powers conferred or the performance of the duties imposed on any authority of the University under this Ordinance or Statutes.

68. Procedure for making Ordinances.—The Governing Council may make, amend or repeal Ordinances in the manner hereinafter provided,—

(i) No Ordinances concerning the matters referred to in clauses (i) to (vi) of section 67 above, or any other matter connected with the maintenance of the standards of teaching and examinations within the University, shall be made by the Governing Council unless a draft thereof has been considered by the Academic Council;

(ii) The Governing Council shall not have the power to amend any draft proposed by the Academic Council under clause (i) above, but may return it to the Academic Council for reconsideration, in part or in whole, together with any amendments which the Governing Council may suggest.

(iii) All Ordinances made by the Governing Council shall have effect from such date as it may direct, but every Ordinance so made shall be submitted to the Chancellor within two weeks. The Chancellor shall have the power to direct the Governing Council, within four weeks of the receipt of the Ordinances, to suspend its operation and he shall, as soon as possible, inform the Governing Council of his objection to it. He may, after receiving the comments of the Governing Council either withdraw the order suspending the Ordinances or disallow the Ordinances and his decision shall be final.

69. Regulations.—(1) Subject to provisions of this Ordinance, the Statutes and Ordinances and the approval of the Governing Council, the Academic Council may make regulations in the manner prescribed by Statutes, providing for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (i) the courses of studies and the conduct of examinations;
- (ii) the admission of students to the various courses of study and to the examinations;
- (iii) the qualifications of teachers;
- (iv) the appointment and prescription of duties of the Boards of Studies and examiners;
- (v) recognition of examinations, degrees and diplomas of the Universities as equivalent to the examinations, degrees and diplomas of the University; and
- (vi) all other matters which under the provisions of this Ordinance, the Statutes and the Ordinances are to be made, or may be, prescribed by the Regulations.

(2) All regulations made under this Ordinance shall have effect from such date as the Academic Council may direct, but every Regulation so made shall be laid before the Governing Council during its next succeeding meeting.

70. Orders.—(1) The University Governing Council shall have power to issue orders not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made thereunder for the guidance and working of Schools and Committees and other bodies constituted under the provisions of this Ordinance or the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made thereunder and for regulating the procedure and conduct of business of any Authority of the University.

(2) All such orders shall have effect from such date as the University Governing Council may direct.

(3) The University Governing Council shall have power to cancel or modify any such order.

71. Publication in the Gazette.—All Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made under this Ordinance shall be published in the Gazette.

MISCELLANEOUS

72. Transfer of certain colleges and institutions to the University.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Kerala Agriculture University Act, 1971 (Act 33 of 1971), the Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations or Orders made thereunder, Colleges of Fisheries of Kerala Agriculture University shall, as from such date as the Government may by notification in the Gazette specify, be disaffiliated from the Kerala Agriculture University and shall be maintained by the Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies, as constituent units.

(2) The control and management of the institutions specified in sub-section (1) shall, as from the date notified under that sub-section, be transferred to the University and all properties and assets and liabilities and obligations of the Government in relation thereto shall stand transferred to, vest in, or devolve upon, the University.

(3) The control and management of all research and educational institutions of the Departments of Fisheries and Ocean Studies in the State shall, as from such date or dates as the Government may by order specify, be transferred to the University, and thereupon all the properties and assets and liabilities and obligations of the Government in relation to such institutions shall stand transferred to, vest in, or devolve upon, the University.

(4) Every person employed in any of the institutions specified in sub-section (1) or in any of the institutions referred to in sub-section (3) immediately before the date specified in the notification under sub-section (1) or the date specified in the order under sub-section (3) in relation to that institution, as the case may be, shall, as from that date, become an employee of the University:

Provided that the Government may within a period of six months from the date specified in the notification under sub-section (1) or in the order under sub-section (3) with the concurrence of the University,—

(a) direct that any person who has so become an employee of the University shall cease to be an employee of the University and shall become an employee of the Government, if in the opinion of the Government the continuance of such person as an employee of the University has the effect of depriving any other person who has superior claim and who is willing to be appointed in the employment of the University; or

(b) transfer to the University any employee of the Government who on the date specified in the notification under sub-section (1) or in the order under sub-section (3), as the case may be, is eligible to become an employee of the University and who has superior claim than any other person who has become an employee of the University on that date:

Provided further that, if in the opinion of the University, any person employed in any of the institution referred to in sub-section (3) immediately before the date specified in the order under that sub-section in relation to that institution or any person transferred to the University under the preceding proviso, is not suitable, the University may move the Government within a period of two years from the date specified in the said order or the date of transfer of the person to the University, as the case may be, to take back such person to the service of the Government, and thereupon the Government shall take back such person to the service of the Government.

(5) If any person employed in any of the colleges specified in sub-section (1) does not possess the qualification prescribed for the corresponding post in the University, a post of the same cadre as he was holding immediately before the date specified in the notification under the said sub-section shall be created in the University for accommodating such person.

(6) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5), the remuneration and conditions of service of any person referred to in sub-section (4) shall not be less favourable than those to which that person was entitled immediately before he became an employee of the University.

(7) Notwithstanding the transfer of a person to the University under sub-section (4), any proceedings initiated by the Government against such person before the date of such transfer may be continued by the Government as if such person has not become an employee of the University, and the University shall be bound to give effect to the decision taken by the Government in such proceedings.

73. Taking over of the Fisheries Research Station, Puthuvypu, Ernakulam.—The University may, subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the Government and the University shall take over the Fisheries Research Station, Puthuvypu, Ernakulam District and thereupon such institute shall be maintained by the University as its constituent unit subject to those conditions.

74. Protection of acts done in good faith.—No suit or other legal proceedings shall be instituted against or maintained or damages claimed from the University or its officers, authorities or bodies for anything done or orders passed, or purporting to have been done or passed in good faith and in pursuance of the provisions of this Ordinance and the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made thereunder.

75. Transitory provisions.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance or the Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations made thereunder any student of any college specified in sub-section (1) of section 72 who is studying for any examination of the Kerala Agricultural University shall be permitted to complete his course and preparation thereof, and the University established under this Ordinance shall make arrangements for holding for such students, examination in accordance with the curricula of studies of the Kerala Agriculture University until he completes the said course of studies.

76. Nominations of first set of Authorities.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Ordinance, the first set of all the Authorities of the University shall be nominated by the Chancellor as soon as may be after the publication of this Ordinance in the Gazette.

(2) A member of any Authority nominated under sub-section (1) shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of such nomination or till the members of the corresponding authority are elected or nominated, as the case may be, under the provisions of this Ordinance, whichever is earlier.

77. Delegation of powers.—The University Governing Council may delegate to any Officer or Authority of the University any of the powers conferred on it by this Ordinance or by the Statutes, to be exercised subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be prescribed.

78. First Statutes and Ordinances.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, the first Statutes and the first Ordinances of the University shall be made by the Government.

79. Powers of Government to make Rules.—(1) The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, for the purpose of exercising the powers and discharging the duties conferred or imposed on the Government by this Ordinance.

(2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly, while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Legislative Assembly makes any modifications in the rule or decides that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or, be of no effect, as the case may be, so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

80. Removal of difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, Government may, by order published in the Gazette, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, which appears to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no order shall be made under this section after the expiration of three years from the date on which this Ordinance comes into force.

(2) No order made under sub-section (1) shall be questioned in any Court of law on the ground that no difficulty as is referred to in the said sub-section existed or was required to be removed.

(3) Every order published under this section shall, as soon as may be after its publication, be laid before the Legislative Assembly, while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Legislative Assembly makes any modifications in the order or decides that the order should not be made, the order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or, be of no effect, as the case may be, so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that order.

GOVERNMENT OF KERALA
Fisheries and Ports (B) Department

NOTIFICATION

G. O. (P) No. 50/2011/F&PD. Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 10th May, 2011.

S. R. O. No. 297/2011.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-sections (1), (2) and (4) of section 73 of the Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies Act, 2010 (5 of 2011), the Government of Kerala hereby specify the 1st day of April, 2011, as the date for disaffiliation and transfer of all properties, assets, liabilities and the obligations of the Government in relation thereto, of College of Fisheries, Panangad and Fisheries Research Centre, Puthuvypu from Kerala Agriculture University to Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies and every person employed in the said College shall become an employee of the University with effect from such date.

By order of the Governor,
DR. A. JAYATHILAK,
Secretary to Government.

Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Sub-section (1) of section 73 of Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies Act, 2010 (5 of 2011) empowers the Government to specify the date for disaffiliation of College of Fisheries of Kerala Agriculture University from Kerala Agriculture University and thereafter it shall be maintained by Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies as constituent units. As per sub-section (2) thereof, the control and management of the institution shall be transferred to the University and all the properties and assets and liabilities and obligations of Government thereto shall also be transferred, vested or devolved upon the University from such date as may be specified by Government under sub-section (1). So, also by virtue of sub-section (4) with effect from such date as may be specified under sub-section (1), the employees of such College shall become the employees of the University.

The Government have now decided to specify the 1st day of April, 2011 as the date for disaffiliation and transfer of assets, liabilities and employees of College of Fisheries, Panangad and Fisheries Research Centre, Puthuvypu from Kerala Agriculture University to Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies.

This notification is intended to achieve the above object.
